The first new construction in Mauna Kea Resort's South Fairways in 25 years. Over 6 years in the making and spotlighted by The Wall Street Journal, Hale Koa Kea is a singular architectural achievement, one of the most unique properties on the Kohala Coast. Inspired by Ludwig Mies van der Rohe's 1929 Barcelona Pavilion, the 4,700 SF house consists of two wings connected by 120-ft-long white sandstone and glass gallery. In addition to serving as a entertaining reception space, the gallery also graciously separates the home's three ensuite guest suites from the
