Set in the cool upper elevations of the District of Puna, at about 3,600 feet above sea level, this 20,000 sqft (more or less) vacant lot in Volcano could provide the serene hideaway you've been looking for. Here you'll find wild growth native flora like hapu'u and uluhe ferns and 'ohia trees, fragrant kahili ginger; and the sounds of native fauna like the red-breasted 'apapane and 'i'iwi birds, who greet visitors with their melodic singing - a one-of-a-kind bird-watching experience.

This lot is approximately 100 feet wide along Twelfth St., and 200 feet deep, per
