An extraordinary highlight of this 7.76-acre, off-the-grid property is a secluded, natural swimming hole fed by the pristine waters of the Koukouai Stream flowing from Haleakala's slope – a rare and exceptional feature for those seeking tranquility, privacy and a connection to nature. The main residence is a three-bedroom, two-bathroom plantation-style home, complete with a spacious, wrap-around, covered lanai. You'll enjoy breathtaking ocean views and serene streamside overlooks. Adding to the property's appeal is a separate two-bedroom,
