This log cabin in Waikoloa is full of character and ready for a fresh start. With an inviting layout and natural wood charm, it sparks creativity for buyers with vision. The home does need moderate work, including addressing active termites, but the seller will cover fumigation costs. Priced accordingly, this is an incredible opportunity to reimagine a unique space at a compelling value. Whether you're looking to renovate, rebuild, or create something completely new, this property offers the chance to craft something truly your own in a desirable location.
