Former original owner was an avid, lifetime gardener. This colorful retreat features unique tropical plantings, fruit trees and much more to discover.

The house is a single wall, redwood constructed home with some upgrades over the years to the flooring and bathroom. Work is needed to reconstruct decking and catwalk. Extra storage or a workshop area can be created beneath the house as it sits high above the ground on the ocean side. The slope of the lot gives the deck a protected view of the ocean beyond.
