Dear Chol, I just got your first letter from Death Row. Many thoughts are on my mind too. I am relieved to know you are okay. I got your message about prison life. I know how difficult it is for outsiders to understand the hellhole at Tracy. Judge Papas will not find peace in his heart as long as he lives because I am certain he knows deep in his heart he has dealt with you unjustly. Jay Yoo tells me Weinglass will be back on June 18. I don't know if I can see you in Death Row for a long interview. By the way, your case is becoming known widely in the eastern states. One indicatioxn is that I have been asked to appear on a national Public Broadcasting series to xxxx speak about your case. I am preparing for this challenge now. I will let you know more about it, as I receive detailed information from the x producer. I am to appear with other Asian Americans as a member of a discussion panel. It will be seen through 150 TV stations. Xxxxxxx Write me a long letter--if you can, that is--about your case so I can correctly x x reflect your feelings and innermost thoughts in my presentation. xx I will be going to SF to tape for the PBS program between June 20x and June 22. So write me before that date.

Another news. I x have been thinking about starting an English paper for the Korean Amercians for many years, but I just can't wait. There are so many things I should write aboutxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx. There are many sad stories to tell. The white society must be told about so many injustices suffered by my own people. I am working hard to prepare a series for my own English weekly which I hope will come out in the fall. I will be going to LA to xxxxxxxxxxxxM pave the way for the weekly. I already have asked David Kxx Rieu to write a piece on you. I know his article will be good. I am x also preparing an editorial on you, saying, Chol Soo, KOREANSxxxxx can never die. I have never met a Korean in the past several weeks who doesn't know about your ordeal. I feel good we Koreans are finally waking up. Maybe I hope to run your letters from Death Row in almost every issue of the forthcoming newspaper called Koreatown. Think about it, and let me hear from you.
