

February 4, 1963

Dr. Eli Bower
Consultant, Mental Health in Education
Research Utilization Branch
National Institute of Mental Health
Bethesda 14, Md.

Dear Dr. Bower:

Thank you very much for your interest in Transactional analysis. I have a book about games which is scheduled for publication in the Fall. It is called "Games People Play," and will be published by Grove Press. I am trying to hurry them a little.

There is also something about games in a book which will be published this month by Lippincott, called "The Structure and Dynamics of Organizations and Groups."

If you are ever in San Francisco, I hope you will come to our seminars on Tuesday evenings. You will find details on the inside back cover of our Bulletin. If I should ever be out your way, I will certainly look you up.

One section of the book on games was mimeographed by some prison people, and I will try to send you a copy of that to show you how games are described and analysed transactionally.

Sincerely yours,

Eric Berne, M.D.

EB: w