You have been hearing from Douglas Kreider for some time as a way of expressing a continuing interest in your well being even though your circumstances may be very much different than before.

The present note is to let you know that this is still the case, and that we would be happy to hear from you if you have the inclination.

Sincerely,

Jerome Motto

Comment (if desired):

Dear Dr. Motto—

I think that I need some help. I have recently sustained several major losses in my life and find myself in dropping into behavior patterns which I know are destructive but with which I don't seem to be able to deal. I would like to set up a limited number of appointments (due to finances) with you to discuss my problems and a possible need for some medication for a while. If this would
