It has been some time since you were at McAuley Hospital, and we are very interested in how you are getting along.

We would very much appreciate it if you could find the time to drop us a note and let us know if you are seeing anyone for assistance.

Sincerely,

Marvin Gladstein

Jerome A. Motto, M. D.

Comment (if desired):

I don't need any help, but my husband does. He's an alcoholic. Can you help him? I do worry about him he has had alot of troubles in his life and has added to mine & has caused us to separate and he could use help - Can you ^(over) contact him?

His Name is

B. I. I feel that if he could get help, we might be able to get to-gather again as I care very much about him. Is there any counseling in this particular field besides AAA. which he refuses to follow. He has been contacted by these groups, but I believe involvement has alot to do with it.

Is there any thing I can do or do you advice I might just forget about him, which is hard to do, My Conscience refuses to give up. There is I believe some time left as he is young.
