ADVANCED HOME FURNISHING SHORTCOURSE

A Home Furnishing Shortcourse is scheduled by University of California home advisor Georgia Lee Wren for December 3, 5, 10, and 12. This course is a follow-up of the Plan Your Home For Living course offered in October.

If you are planning to buy new furniture, it is very important to make a room arrangement plan, Mrs. Wren says. Without a plan it is difficult to know what size or shape furniture to select nor can we make a final plan either for color or texture. Then too, she states, "most rooms can be improved by a better arrangement of the furniture. It may be that you will find that more furniture is not needed but better arrangement of what you have."

The first meeting is Tuesday, December 3, at 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. or in the evening 7:30 to 9:30 and will deal with a Plan for Space. Meeting 2, Selection and Care of Rugs and Carpets. Meeting 3, Selection of Furniture--How to Avoid Pitfalls. And Meeting 4 deals with Window Treatment and Use of Accessories.

Anyone interested is invited to attend. However, Mrs. Wren warns that if you did not attend the earlier course Plan Your Home For Living, we strongly advise that you call the Farm and Home Advisors Office 233-2283 to register. ^{give} Your name and whether you desire to attend morning or evening sessions. All meetings are held in the Farm and Home Advisors Office at 1720 S. Maple.
