RECENT SALINAS CENTER TRANSFERS LIKE S.A.C.

"It's better here," remarked Dr. George Sasaki, the newly transferred doctor from Salinas, when asked what he thought of the Stockton Assembly Center, "because the grounds are roomier."

Dr. Sasaki and Nurses Mary Hashimoto and Chitose Aihara arrived here Wednesday from Parker Relocation Center in order to take up duties in the hospital. All were formerly stationed at the Salinas Center Hospital, but they accompanied the sick to Arizona when the Salinas Center was moved to Parker.

Genial and friendly, all three agreed that everything was all right, while Dr. Sasaki said that the personnel here pleased him. Nurses Hashimoto and Aihara smiled as they said, "Tho' our stay here will be temporary, we are glad to be here."

Q.M. Roll call.

Roll call will be taken tomorrow (Sunday only) morning at 6 a.m., so that the wrestling tournament may take place from 8 to 10:45 p.m. Residents are asked to remain in their barracks.

'FINANCES NOT PRIMARY POINT,' SAYS BALDERSTON, REP. OF NAT'L S.R.C.

"The chance to go to school back east offers enviable opportunities," said Dr. Balderston of the National Student Relocation Council to eighty young people last Wednesday evening at Edex Hall.

He stated that the basis of selection will depend upon (1) scholarship, (2) personality and (3) ability to adjust oneself to a new life.

"The matter of financing yourself is not a primary point," stressed Balderston.

He declared that the Council was seeking to aid the students by (1) offering tuition and scholarship, (2) by working with church and educational groups, (3) by getting part-time work for the relocated student and (4) by arranging social contacts for the student.

Professor Tyler, also of the National Student Relocation Council, accompanied Balderston. He urged all interested college-age students to fill out the questionnaires in triplicate, in spite of the decreasing opportunities of relocation. (cont. on p. 3)

VOL. II, NO. 1 STOCKTON ASSEMBLY CENTER JULY 12, 1942

STORE CUTS PRICES REDUCTION EFFECTIVE SUN.

Effective SUNDAY MORNING, JULY 12, (that's tomorrow!) the prices of approximately 145 articles on sale at the Center Store will be reduced on the average of 20% was the announcement made yesterday by Mr. Ralph I. Millet, Supervisor of Finance and Records, and Mr. A. Nicholson, Assistant Center Manager.

OLD AGE BENEFITS FOR CENTER-ITES!

Center residents are entitled to the benefits of the Old Age and Survivors' Insurance provisions of the Social Security Act but are not eligible for the unemployment insurance.

Many are not receiving payments because their whereabouts are unknown. They are urged to come to the Information Booth to determine the status of their cases and to change their addresses.

Aliens, as well as citizens, are entitled to these provisions as long as they were employed in an industry governed by the Social Security Act.

No Dance Tonight!

The greatest and the most welcome reduction will be in the prices of cigarettes (15¢-14¢); tobacco, chewing and pipe, (10¢-9¢); book matches (2 for 1¢-10¢ per box); razor blades (25¢-18¢); soda water (5¢-4¢); candies (5¢-4¢); deodorants (39¢-25¢); talcum (25¢-18¢); cleansing and cold cream (28¢-23¢); thread (5¢-3¢); combs (10¢-6¢); tooth powder (45¢-37¢); tooth brushes (25¢-18¢); sanitary napkins (25¢-18¢) and Kleenex (13¢-10¢).

There are some articles (peanut bars) that will not be reduced and some (oranges) that will even be slightly raised. Most of the toilet articles will be reduced as much as 33%.

Under the so-called px system the new prices will be identical with those prevailing at army camps.

VOLUNTEERS TO CLEAN GRANDSTAND ON SUNDAY

The members and their families of the Buddhist Church have volunteered to clean up the grandstand every Sunday morning.

Block No. 1 cleaned it up last Sunday. Block No. 2 will be in charge tomorrow. They are asked to meet at 7:30 a.m.

JACOBS WITH SUPER ADJECTIVES PLUS

"Perfect." With a mischievous grin, "Beautiful, glamorous, exotic," commented Mr. Bert Jacobs, Superintendent of the Post Office Station, and "pharmacist-postmaster" when asked what he thought of his job.

A thumbnail sketch of Mr. Jacobs includes: (1) born in Stockton, January 4, 1909; (2) graduated Stockton Hi in '26; (3) at present a killer-diller!

On Tuesday, Mr. Harold Mundell, our Center Manager, is due to leave for his former post in New Mexico as the State Director of Employment for the W.P.A.

Cautious and deliberative in his policies, he has been instrumental in easing whatever repercussions which may have fallen on us. His earnest efforts and active work in behalf of the residents cannot be overlooked or minimized.

We feel that we are voicing the opinion of the Center in saying that we respectfully appreciate his sincerity in the matter of the proper management of the Center.

Lastly, we wish him the best of good fortunes in all of his future endeavors.

'WHAT FOODS THESE MORSELS BE!'

Dear Editor:

Will you kindly write an editorial on the waste of food in the warehouse department? Quite often spoiled vegetables and fruits are being thrown away. This is our food so that we, the people in this center, should ask them to be more careful; then there is no need to run out of foods like some mess has been doing. Why should perishable food spoil in the warehouse when we need all the fresh vegetable and fruit we can get? Also by a fair distribution of all foods persons in the last mess call will not be deprived of their allowance.

(signed) bt

Replying to the proposed editorial, I find that the author is not acquainted with the problem of supplying 4,100 people with perishable foods.

It is almost impossible to obtain fresh fruits and vegetables in quantities and qualities desired. Our orders are placed 12 days in advance of our needs, but we cannot often obtain some items. Consequently, we must accept perishables which are not in accordance with our specifications. Either that, or do without. For example, cantaloupes recently received were already 10% spoiled. In order to insure a constant supply of perishables we must maintain a supply above our daily needs. This, in turn, results in a certain percentage of spoilage. So, the spoilage of fruit and vegetables to which the writer refers, is an unavoidable spoilage, and not the result of carelessness or mismanagement.

As to the shortage of food at the last mess, we must depend upon the kitchen personnel to advise us when such shortages occur. We are endeavoring in every way possible to abolish any shortages. To our knowledge no shortages have been reported within the last ten days. We want everyone to have an adequate supply of food, for upon our ability to care for our evacuees, rests the record we will establish. And we wish to establish a good one.

Tyler emphasized that those "who can best sell themselves," would be desired, as the relocated student may do much in alleviating much of the misunderstanding and mistaken impressions prevailing in many communities where Nisei are unknown.

COOPERATIVES

Since the introductory talk on Consumers' Cooperatives by Mr. Karl Hansen in the latter part of June, a six-man committee has been collecting, assorting and studying material pertaining to cooperatives in order to present to the EL JOAQUIN readers a series of articles explaining this co-op movement.

Readers are asked to pay special attention to these articles presented semi-weekly, because the cooperative form of organization will be established in the Relocation Centers. It is important that as many Center-ites as possible are informed of the principles and procedure of the co-op to insure its success.

REDS ADD 2 MORE VICTORIES MAS OKUHARA SLUGS 8 FOR 10.

Paced by the sensational bat wielding of All-Star Mas Okuhara, who tore the horsehide for a spectacular 8 for 10, the loop-leading Reds added two more lop-sided wins to their column, a 16-0 shutout over the Yanks and a 17-2 triumph over the Trojans. The whitewashing of the Yanks was the first shutout in the American League.

The surprising Blk. 3 Senators came to life by mowing down two opponents, the helpless Kiwanis 17-9 and by upsetting the second place Bums 12-6 to escape from the cellar. Leftfielder Mauch Yamashita crushed any hopes of the Bums winning by coming through time after time with magnificent catches.

The Rainbows split a pair of games. They were swamped by the Aristocrats 17-3 and came back the next day to whip the Bears 3-2.
