

Who of us hasn't faced a _____.

In 1 Corinthians 15:7-10, we learn how the power of His _____ represents hope for other lost _____ and dead _____.

The Apostle Paul's testimony is that the power that raised Jesus Christ from the dead is –

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

1) Resurrection power is _____.

- Paul's experience should give us hope and confidence that _____ is too bad to be changed by the Lord.

- What changes in your life have you been unable to make?

- Who, in your life is least likely (like Paul) to receive Christ?

- Who would you be now if not for God's grace?

2) Resurrection power is _____.

- You may be changed – but you will still need the power to
_____, _____, and _____ as unto the Lord.

- What has God called you to be and to do – that you can't (or won't) do in your own strength – but for which you need His energizing power?

- What does Paul say (in your own words) -

- Philippians 2:13 –

- Philippians 4:13 –

- Romans 8:11 –

3) Resurrection power is _____.

Note that in vs 10, Paul calls this power _____.

Why?

Grace is any expression of the _____ of God
that is given to those who _____ deserve it.

How do we receive this Grace?

Begin by acknowledging to yourself and to God that you are a _____.

Next, you'll need to face squarely the fact that you, a _____ and _____ being cannot please our infinitely _____ and _____ God.

You need a _____ that comes from outside yourself – that comes from _____.

Lastly – you must acknowledge that Christ's _____,
_____, and _____ was on your behalf.

Trust in Jesus Christ today – then you will begin to experience for yourself the wonders of Christ's _____ power.
