

Lo, I Bring You Tidings

Words and Music
© 1984 Dana Thynes

A E F#m C#m D E A D E

1. Lo, I bring you tid - ings, hear God's ten-der mer-cies out-poured,

5 A E A F#m C# D E A

5 He has sent a sav - iour which is Christ the Lord.

9 A E A F#m C# A E A D E

9 Down the Day-spring comes to men, made a child of earth,

Lo, I Bring You Tidings

13 A E A F#m C#m D E A

Sing, Cre - a - tion, for His birth, Al-le-lu - ia.

13

2. Can this be Messiah, David's son as prophets did tell?
 Shall a tiny Babe be our Emmanuel?
 Let us go to Bethlehem, We will see this thing,
 Haste, that we may greet our King, Alleluia.

3. Mary pondered greatly all the words the shepherds had said,
 Watching close her baby, in his manger bed.
 Here asleep the Son of God, and the Son of man,
 Heav'n and earth within Him stand. Alleluia.