Colt Club Rules

Welcome to The Lamar Colt Club! Below are a list of rules and guidelines to ensure all club activities are fun and safe. All club members are expected to represent Lamar Mustang football in a positive manner. Members must be nice to one another and treat other Colt Club members and adults with respect.

Running through The Tunnel on game day is a special privilege usually only granted to Mustang Varsity Football players.

Colt Club members that want to run through The Tunnel must follow the guidelines listed below.

- Colt Club members will be able to run through The Tunnel before Games scheduled at Traylor. Must be old enough to run through without parent.
 - Parents are responsible for making sure their children stay in the staging area before they run through The Tunnel and return to the stands afterwards.
 - They must be wearing the official shirt to get in to the game free and be accompanied by a parent with a ticket.
 - They must be wearing the official shirt to run through The Tunnel (Sorry, no exceptions)
- Parents should have kids at Traylor Stadium at least 30 minutes before Game.
 - Members should be brought to the Colt Club staging area at the "Pass Gate – Gate 2" located on the southeast side corner (home side next to Field House).
 - They will run through The Tunnel and then line up to cheer on the Varsity as they run out of The Tunnel.
 - They will then walk down the sideline and exit the field through the same gate through which they entered the field.
- Parents can meet their child at the staging area after they run.
 - Parents are not allowed on the field.
 - Members should go directly to their seats in the stands after they leave the field.
 - Members must listen and follow directions of adult Colt Club representative at all times.
 - Members that do not follow directions or misbehave while on the field will not be able to run through The Tunnel at future games.
