

NOMINATIONS AND ELIGIBILITY:

- Any person involved with the Athletic Department/programs at Northwest High School is eligible for induction into the Hall of Fame.
- The nominee must have graduated at least five (5) years prior to the date of induction. This waiting period is waived for coaches/staff members.
- Coaches, teachers, and administrators become eligible for nomination upon retirement from the building or have vacated the position they held.
- High school endeavors and postgraduate achievements (athletic and non-athletic) will be considered.
- Nominees need to have credentials and accomplishments deemed worthy of recognition by the Hall of Fame Committee. College attendance is not a prerequisite. Only individuals selected by the Hall of Fame Committee for induction will be contacted. Any nomination not selected for induction will remain standing for consideration by the Hall of Fame Committee for three years.
