

National Signing Day 2019

John Glenn High School

John Glenn had four student athletes sign a National Letter of Intent to continue their academic and athletic careers at the collegiate level next fall.

- Dante Barthwell – Saginaw Valley State University (Football)
- Chad Stevens – Hillsdale College (Baseball)
- Jared Tarrance – Michigan Tech University (Football)
- Lee Williams – Notre Dame College (Football)

College recruiters consider several factors when they decide on offers for scholarships and roster spots and these student athletes have stood out amongst their peers; not only for their ability to play in their respective sport but also with their academic performance in the classroom and their character, leadership skills, and ability to be a teammate.

Dante Barthwell

Dante Barthwell has committed to Saginaw Valley State University for football and has been recruited as a running back. Dante has a cumulative GPA of 2.8 and has played multiple sports (football, basketball and track), during his four-year career at John Glenn and has excelled in all three. Dante plans to pursue a degree in Sports Management or Business while attending Saginaw Valley State University.
