

Bob Webster

Diving

Class of 1956

A 1956 graduate of Santa Ana High School where he competed in diving, Bob Webster went on to compete at Santa Ana College and then the University of Michigan before joining the US Diving Team. From 1960-1964 Bob took first place in every international competition he entered, including winning gold medals in 10 meter platform diving at the 1960 Olympic Games in Rome, the 1963 Pan American Games, and the 1964 Olympic Games in Tokyo. He later coached diving at the University of Minnesota, Princeton University, and the US Diving Team. He is a member of the international swimming hall of fame. In 2000 the School Board elected to name our aquatics center the “Bob Webster Swimming Complex.”
