

Dick Hill

Head Coach – Football

1984-1992

The late Dick Hill coached high school football for six decades in Southern California, coaching at Santa Ana high school from 1984-1991. While he won section championships in four decades, his last came in 1985 when he led the Saints football team to the CIF Southern Conference Championship. He retired from Orange in 1997 as Orange County's winningest coach with a 212-111-4 record.
