

1. Individual Camp — July 12-15 2021

Monday-Thursday / 2nd—8th Grades

Coach Traxler and his staff will provide a fun atmosphere while teaching the proper fundamentals of basketball. Skills covered daily will include flexibility exercises, speed improvement drills, footwork improvement, and offensive breakdown skills including shooting, passing, and dribbling. To enhance the learning process, games will be incorporated in the teaching process. Campers in 2nd through 8th Grade are eligible to attend.

2. High School Camp — Coach will share the summer schedule—contact Coach Traxler (traxlern@msdr9.org) / 9th — 12th Grades

Varsity, Junior Varsity & incoming Freshmen level players will get extensive drill work in defensive and offensive fundamentals, footwork, overall body fitness and conditioning. Players will also get instruction on proper shooting technique with many experienced coaches and college level players. Campers will finish everyday with individual skills competitions and team play.

3. Shooting Camp — July 13-14

Tuesday & Wednesday / 6th—12th Grades

Camp will provide players an opportunity to work on their shooting and offensive skills. Camp emphasis will be on offensive movements and proper shooting form, with an All Star game on Wednesday. The Tiger coaching staff will also provide one-on-one specialized instructions during the 2 days of camp.
