Announcements

This month's IB Meeting has been rescheduled for December 3 at 6:00pm. I will resend the link the night before.

~~~

Donors Needed! Interested in becoming an IB Contributing Family or Business? All proceeds directly benefit IB students at Lecanto High School. The donor form can be found at this link: <https://tinyurl.com/lhsibdonor>

Semester 1 ends on January 15, 2021. At the end of this newsletter, I have attached the exam schedule so you may begin planning. Please review the document thoroughly.

~~~

Behind in your classes? Use some of your time this week off and use it to catch up or polish up on concepts you are struggling with!

~~~

I have attached some resources for completing community service hours at home. Please review them in the attachments and plan to get some hours done!

~~~

I have attached the FIRST LHS Scholarship Bulletin of the year at the end of this document. Keep applying, seniors!

~Announcements by Class~

Seniors

Graduation will be upon us before you know it! Check that you have all graduation requirements, and at least 100 hours of community service to qualify for Bright Futures. Also, you should be finishing up college applications and applying for lots of scholarships! Your Prescribed Title Essay is DUE TODAY. It is late after the 20th!

Sophomores

This is the year that you need to be stepping up and taking more leadership roles. This is crucial in building strong college and scholarship applications. SGA will have representatives at next week's IB Meeting to discuss how you can get involved!

Juniors

There is no better time than now to plan! I recommend using Cappex.com to start planning for college and scholarships! They include "Chances to Get In, College Fit Score, Scholarships, Reviews, and more!"
Hoodies are in! We will be holding our alternative ceremony on December 3 during TOK Classes. Innovative Students are welcome. Pictures and video will be available to families.

Freshmen

Your GPA this year matters! Keep up with all work and be diligent. It is also important to start building relationships with teachers, administration and other adult leaders in your lives. They will be helpful when you need recommendations for scholarships and colleges!

All IB Policies, including honor code, expectations and coursework, are designed to build skills in research, communication, socialization, thinking and self-management. Be curious, engaged, and organized and you will find success in IB!

~CAS Corner~

Support LHS IB CAS Projects ~ Serve Local & Global Communities ~ Earn a CAS Experience!

Please read the following list carefully. If you feel that you are eligible to apply for any of the opportunities, please feel free to pick up an application in Guidance or access the list on the schools websites which are listed above. If you are unable to find an application or know of any opportunities that are not listed below, please notify or share with Ms. Wieczorek in Guidance Department. Thank you!

Remember to READ the scholarship CAREFULLY and FOLLOW ALL DIRECTIONS that are listed on the application. Failure to do so, may result in the loss of that scholarship opportunity. So, please read ALL the information. If you have any questions or need clarifications on the different opportunities, please feel free to contact Ms. Wieczorek in Guidance.

Students: Please remember that you are RESPONSIBLE for mailing out your own applications, unless stated otherwise on the scholarship bulletin or application. In fairness to all applicants, applications must be submitted in accordance with the established deadlines.

TIPS: Many of our local scholarship organizations request the following attachments to their applications. These items should be prepared in advance and be available to attach to your applications:

- 1.) One to three letters of recommendation (Maybe from a teacher, coach, counselor, employer, or church / community member familiar with you and your community activities.) (Ask permission to copy letters and keep them on file for further use.)
- 2.) A Resume Detail your activities, awards, accomplishments, and community service throughout your high school career. (Make copies and keep them on file for further use.)
- 3.) An Essay (Brief, one-page) Include:
 - * Outline your goals for the future, your family dynamics, and how your family will be impacted if you do not receive any financial help for college
 - * Write a paragraph about your community service; how it impacted you and those you helped; and your intent or viewpoint concerning your future involvement in community service
 - * Mention your work ethic - at home, at school, outside of school.

 KEEP YOUR ESSAY ON YOUR COMPUTER...READY TO ADJUST FOR DIFFERENT SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS
- 4.) Transcript - READ CAREFULLY - If your scholarship application is to be turned in to the Guidance Department, the transcript will be attached for you. If your application and transcript are to be mailed/submitted by you, complete a transcript request form at least one week BEFORE it is due.
