

Alec Pribulsky MS, AT

Background:

Alec is entering his third year at North Union as the head athletic trainer. Prior to his time at NU he lived in Winter Haven, Florida where he worked as an Assistant Athletic Trainer at Webber International University with his primary sports coverage being men's soccer and baseball. While living in Florida he also was a PRN Athletic Trainer for Orlando Health working for the Florida Youth Soccer Association and Orlando City Youth Academy.

Prior to making the move to Florida, Alec obtained his Master's degree from The Ohio University studying athletic training. While as a bobcat he worked as a graduate assistant covering in-season wrestling and off-season volleyball. Alec obtained his undergraduate degree from Defiance College studying athletic training and minoring in wellness and corporate fitness. He also participated on the men's soccer team for his first two years.

Alec currently resides in Upper Arlington, Ohio.
