GIRLS BASKETBALL

The East Noble Knights Girls Basketball team has won 2 games in a row and 4 of their last 6.

The Lady Knights have used second half spurts in the last two games, beginning with a victory over rival – DeKalb on January 16. East Noble was led in scoring by Bree Walmsley & Carly Turner, who each scored 8 points. Mynhier chipped in with 5 points, Garton with 5, and Patton with 2.

The Knights head into Saturday's matchup with Norwell, who is atop the conference standings at 5-0 and 16-3 overall. East Noble also has its last home game on Tuesday, January 26 against West Noble, along with one more conference game at Leo on January 27.

The IHSAA Girls Basketball Sectional draw will take place this weekend. The sectional is set to begin on Tuesday February 2 and will be played at DeKalb.

The East Noble Basketball program is 7-6 on the season with key wins coming over Westview and Goshen in recent weeks.

The Knights lost an overtime battle with John Glenn in the finals of the Max Platt Holiday tourney back on December 29. The John Glenn Falcons currently boast a 10-1 record.

East Noble also fell in the final seconds to Huntington North on January 9 as the Vikings hit a deep 3-point shot with 4 seconds remaining to take the lead.

The Knights now turn their attention to conference play with 3 straight NE8 contests looming. Leo (10-0) will come to Kendallville this Saturday. East Noble will travel to Columbia City and Norwell next week.
