

B A S E B A L L T E A M

Fourth row: Paul Dusseau, Donald Shultz, Robert Schumaker, Vernon Meinke, Francis Danji.
 Third row: George Frahn, assistant manager; Harold Romstadt, Robert Sweede, Richard Romstadt, Woodrow Goodrode, William TenEyck, Mr. Potter, coach.
 Second row: Robert Johnson, Howard Kohn, James Koch, Roy Lallendorff, Lewis Sass, Foster Dohms.
 First row: Glenn Phillips, Elmer Reihing, Reynold Sharlow, Arthur Johnson, Byron Koch.
 Not in picture: John Verb, manager.

SCHEDULE

(FALL)

September 18	Clay 16	Walbridge	4	here
September 21	Clay 9	Waterville	1	away
September 25	Clay 0	St. John's	1	here
October 2	Clay 3	Lake	4	here
October 5	Clay 3	Monclova	4	away
October 9	Clay 11	Walbridge	1	away

(SPRING)

April 9	Clay	Walbridge		here
April 12	Clay	Lake		away
April 16	Clay	Whitehouse		away
April 18	Clay	Monclova		here
April 23	Clay	St. John's		here
April 27	Tournament vs	Whitehouse
April 30	Tournament vs	Holland
May 2	Tournament vs	Monclova
May 7	Clay	Whitmer		away
May 10	Clay	St. John's		here
May 14	Clay	Whitehouse		here
May 17	Clay	Monclova		away
May 21	Clay	Lake		here
May 24	Clay	Whitmer		here

B A S E B

ELMER REIHING—Nicknamed "Elm" by his teammates—him at Clay—usually plays shortstop—hits—at bat, he stars throughout the year.

HOWARD KOHN—Star pitcher for Clay who throughout the year—is nicknamed "How"—years at Clay he has hit many homers at.

JAMES EELLS—Another star pitcher for Clay—the rest of the players—has won a good and good relief pitching.

GLENN PHILLIPS—First string catcher at Clay—years at Clay—a good catcher and plays.

REYNOLD SHARLOW—First string, third base game and stops many hits from going in.

ARTHUR JOHNSON—Plays second base well—"Art" by his teammates—a good infielder.

JAMES KOCH—Plays first base and is in his last year in the infield and through his height, he is a good hitter and is called "Jim" by his teammates.

ROBERT JOHNSON—An outfielder who is in his last year and when he hits them they go a long way.

HAROLD ROMSTADT—An outfielder who will be known as "Spud" by his team mates—he has had a good game in the outfield.

LOUIS SASS—An outfielder who has a mighty name applied to him is "Chub"—a good player.

ROY LALENDORFF—An outfielder who bats right year at Clay—is a good hitter and when he hits is the nickname given him.

ROBERT SCHUMAKER—An outfielder with one of the best punches by his team mates—has a timely punch—also at the plate.

BYRON KOCH—A sophomore who plays first base—a good game in the field and also at the plate.