

Third row: Robert Miller, assistant manager, Jake Moritz, Harold Herman, James Nightingale, Richard Lambert, Edward Nolan, Oris Meinke, Walter Pingel, manager.

Second row: Elmer Parquette, Raymond Perry, Eugene Cutcher, Gwyn Hunt, Paul Dusseau, John Takacs, Marvin Dubbs, Howard Schuffenecker, Richard Smith.

First row: Vernon Meinke, Harold Romstadt, Charles Toth, Byron Koch, Edward Smith, Henry Weis, Vernon Stier, Elmer Reihing, Harold Potter, coach.

B A S E B A L L

SCHEDULE OF SPRING GAMES

April 13.....	Monclova.....	Here
April 16.....	DeVilbiss.....	There
April 20.....	Lake.....	There
April 23.....	Libbey.....	Here
April 27.....	Whitehouse.....	Here
April 30.....	Monclova.....	There
May 4.....	Whitmer.....	Here
May 7.....	Whitehouse.....	There
May 14.....	Walbridge.....	Here
May 21.....	Whitmer.....	There

B A S E

Walbridge 1

Clay opened the season with Walbridge. The Clay hitting was very good.

Vocational 7

The second game with Vocational was between Paul Dusseau and the Vocational team. The season.

Lake 2

Dusseau and Cutcher did the pitching. Dusseau was chalked up with his second.

Vocational 1

Ed Smith pitched a nice game. Ed Smith won the second game.

Walbridge 5

Walbridge came back from their sixteen strikeouts helped a lot. This

Alumni 0

Yes! that's right! For the first time Ed Smith was the hurler for Clay.

All in all, this was a very successful season. Dusseau and Smith, who split the pitching, have both these pitchers next year.

Clay is losing six of her first strikers: "Elm" Reihing, shortstop; "Butch" Reihing, first base; "Chuck" Toth behind the plate; and Clay also has some promising pitchers. This season is as good as that of '36."