BASEBALL

Clay High School has every reason for having a good baseball team this year. For two reasons Clay did not have a fall squad: (1) because many of the boys were out for football and that did not leave enough for baseball, (2) the diamond was dug up to put a pipe line under it. Although five or six regulars graduated last year, Clay has plenty of material to fill in the positions vacated. Here is the setup: the pitchers are Paul Dusseau, Vernon Meinke, Marvin Ames, Steve Vargo; the catchers are John Takacs, Howard Schuffenecker, Marvin Dubbs, Ray Malosh; the boys who play first are Roger Dubbs, Elmer Parquette, Clayton Groll, George Blakeman; the second basemen are Jake Moritz, James Calloway, Melvin Albertson; the shortstops are Gwyn Hunt, Richard Lambert, Merle Shultz; the thirdbasemen are Vernon Meinke, Robert Connor, Harold Olsen; and the outfield consists of Harold Herman, Edward Nolan, Oris Meinke, Dewey McCrosky, Lester Dohms, Neil Johnson, Elwood Groll, and Cassius Johnson.
