

2019 Churchill Baseball Expectations/ Information

Tryout Criteria (Tryouts are March 1, 2, and 4)

- All potential players must be present and on time for all tryouts (arrive 15 min early is on-time) .
- We will evaluate players based on...
 - o players ability to perform our everyday practice routines.
 - o the position(s) needed for the JV and Varsity teams (ex. what positions do we need to fill)
 - o Consistency in regards to fielding/batting/pitching/baseball IQ
 - o If you are a returning player who did didn't improve, your spot could be in jeopardy
 - o If an younger player is better than an older player, that roster spot may go to the younger player(s).
- We want to keep the best 16-18 players for Varsity and roster about 16 players for JV.
- If you are not rostered on either team, we always open up our rosters on our Fall/Summer teams for those who want to continue improving in order to help you improve for the following year's Churchill Baseball tryouts.

Team Goals

- Create a winning atmosphere (Division, Region, and State Championship caliber teams)
- Improve the team's performance as the season progresses (peak during the playoffs)
- Develop players in order to make the TEAM more competitive.
- Maintain high grades in all classes during the baseball season

Player Expecations
