

WINSTON CHURCHILL ATHLETICS HALL OF FAME

2019 Inductees

Larry Bellamy

Football

Class of 1975

Larry Bellamy is very proud to be a Winston Churchill Bulldog, Class of 1975. He represents his alma mater everywhere he goes with pride! In his senior year, Mr. Bellamy was a member of the first Bulldog team to get to the State football championship after a 10 – 0 season. He was named to the All-County team and was an All-Met Honorable Mention his senior year. Mr. Bellamy was not only a dominant athlete under the guidance of Coach Fred Shepherd, he then went on to be an integral member of his coaching staff where he served for 13 seasons from 1983 to 1997. He was in charge of filming games, coaching positions, and coached 7 on 7 summer league football games. In addition to coaching football, Mr. Bellamy was also a summer league basketball coach.

Mr. Bellamy has proudly worked for Montgomery County Public Schools for 40 years! He has spent the last 20 years at Rockville High School where he is adored by students and staff. He plays a pivotal role in encouraging students with his constant positivity and contagious smile! He is a constant positive force in the lives of not only his children, grandchildren, nieces, and nephews, but countless other youths that he has coached and mentored throughout his life. When Larry is not representing his Winston Churchill Bulldogs, he is proudly rooting for his Washington Redskins.

Morgan Hatten

Girls Basketball

Class of 2004

Morgan Hatten graduated in 2004. In addition to being part of the back to back State Champion Girls' Basketball teams, Ms. Hatten played varsity volleyball, softball, and lacrosse during her four years at Winston Churchill. During the 2003-04 school year, she hit the 1,000 point mark and earned All-County and All-Met honors. She continued her basketball career at UMBC. She comes from a family of Bulldogs. Her mom, Lauren played basketball at Churchill, and her brothers played Varsity Tennis. Ms. Hatten combines her passions of basketball and helping others by coaching for the Special Olympics. She is a Certified Financial Planner in Bethesda, Maryland.

Devin KayGolf*Class of 2006

Devin Kay graduated from Winston Churchill High School in 2006 and was a District Champions, and State Champions. In 2006, as a senior and co-captain, he had the lowest regular season scoring average in the county at 35 strokes per round and was an Individual State Champion. He was the #1 ranked amateur golfer in Maryland before getting recruited to play collegiately at Lynn University in Boca Raton, Florida. Mr. Kay was a professional golfer from 2010-2014 and is the first ever golfer to be inducted into the JCC Hall of Fame in Washington, DC. He is a luxury real estate agent at Douglas Elliman in Southern Florida, where he has lived since 2006.

Audrey Gariepy-BoguiTrack & Field*Class of 2007

Ms. Bogui was the Montgomery County Athlete of the Decade (2000-2009). During her time at Winston Churchill, she was a 4-time Washington Post All-Met athlete. She was an 8-time Maryland State Champion. She was a high school All-American high jumper. While at WCHS, she was a member of Big Brothers & Sisters, the Mock Trial Club, and Vice President of the French National Honor Society. After graduation, she attended Villanova University and The George Washington University Law School. She was an NCAA All-Academic and Big East Academic All Star, a repeat NCAA regional qualifier, and a Penn Relays and New Balance Collegiate Invitational high jump champion. Today she is an attorney at the firm of Reed Smith where she focuses on complex civil litigation, employment law, and government investigations. Her pro bono practice, for which she has been recognized as a member of the Capitol Pro Bono Honor Roll with high honors, is a source of great pride as it focuses on family law and child abuse and neglect cases. Ms. Gariepy-Bogui thanks her close knit family for their love and support and credits them for her successes.

Erin McManusTrack & Field*Class of 2008

Erin McManus is a 2008 graduate. She was a member of the varsity cross country and indoor and outdoor track teams for nine seasons and was a part of the qualifying team for the state meet in each of those seasons. As a senior, she helped lead the Bulldogs to wins in the County and Regional cross country meets. In 2008, Ms. McManus was named a Nike Indoor Track All-American in the 4x800m relay and distance medley relay. She is part of the team that holds the school record in the 4x800m from 2008 to present. She was a member of the National Honor Society, Math Honor Society, and the Physics Team and a 2008 Class Valedictorian. She continued her running career at Vanderbilt University. Ms. McManus is married to Paul Orecchio and is a software engineer for Real-Time Innovations in Silicon Valley.

Louise Hannallah BaylyTrack & Field*Class of 2008

Louise Hannallah Bayly is a 2008 graduate of WCHS. She holds the school record in the 3200 meters, the event in which she was the State Champion in 2007 and 2008 in indoor track. She was first-team All-Met and Maryland Gatorade Athlete of the Year for cross country in 2007. She was second-team All-SEC and first-team NCAA South Region in 2011 and was 101st at NCAA's. Ms. Bayly applies these same driven qualities that she learned through the sport of running to her everyday life. Ms. Bayly received her master's in social work from Columbia University in 2016 and now works as a licensed clinical social worker in the neonatal intensive care unit at Mount Sinai Hospital in New York City. She feels overwhelmed with gratitude for the support from her incredible WCHS coaches and teammates who became her high school family.

Pat FisherCoach/ Athletic Director

Pat Fisher won 100 Girls' Varsity Basketball games during her tenure in Montgomery County. She led our Bulldogs to both of their championships in 2002 and 2003. In 2001, she led the Bulldogs as State Championship Finalists and in 2004, her team was the Montgomery County Division Champions. She was Coach of the Year in the Montgomery Journal and the Gazette in 2001, 2002, and 2003 and was The Washington Post 2002 All-Met Coach of the Year. During her tenure as Athletic Director at Winston Churchill High School, she brought the school into compliance with federally mandated Title IX gender equity requirements in terms of spending and facility usage. She is a NIAAA Certified Athletic Administrator and a member of the Maryland State Athletic Directors Association.

Peter MenkeAthletic Director

Peter Menke is being inducted posthumously. Mr. Menke was the Athletic Director at Winston Churchill High School from 1989 to 1997. In 1990, he was named MCPS Athletic Director of the Year. From 1992-94, he served as the President of the Maryland State Athletic Director's Association. In 1992, he was voted the MSADA's State Athletic Director of the Year, and in 1999 he was named to the MSADA Hall of Fame. As an Athletic Director, he used his position to fight for girls' sports to get equal attention and resources. He also coached in MCPS. After his career in MCPS, Mr. Menke became mayor of the town of Barnesville in 2001, a position in which he served until his passing in January of 2011. Mr. Menke retired finally as the Athletic Director of Paul IV Catholic High School in Fairfax, Virginia, where the Peter T. Menke Scholar-Athlete award was named in his memory and awarded to the senior who most exemplifies Mr. Menke's characteristics of positivity, loyalty, honesty, and fairness.

Craig Stewart

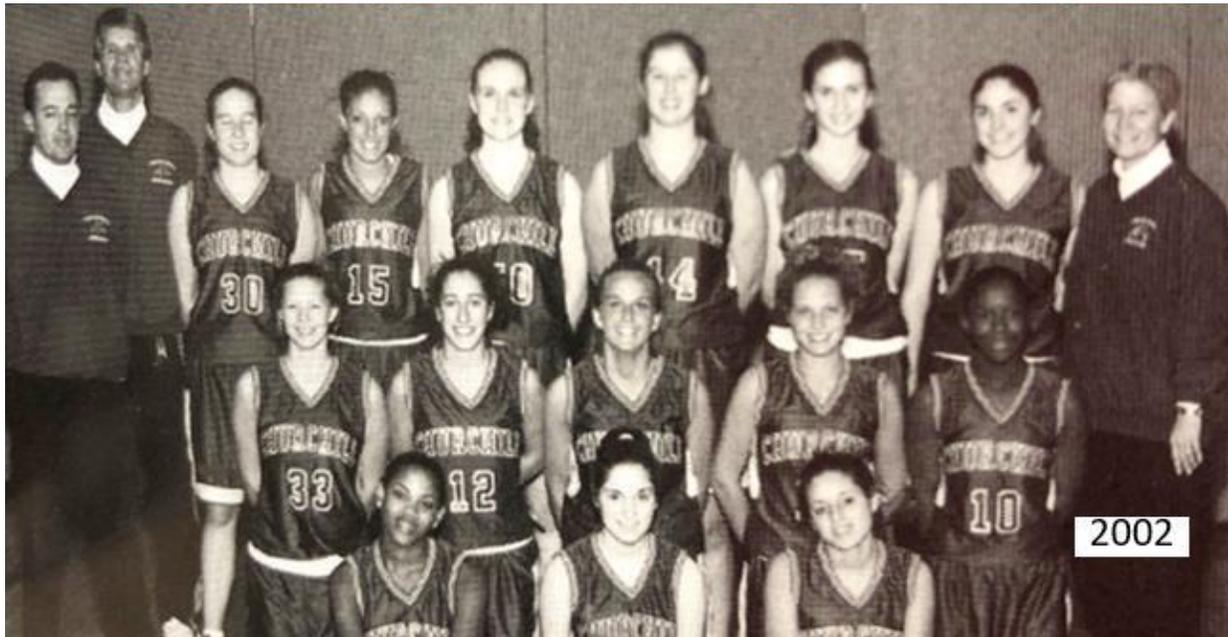

Community Star

Craig Stewart has been known affectionately to the Bulldog community as “Stu” for over 40 years. He has worked with nine Athletic Directors in every capacity in the Athletics Department since 1977 to ensure that our matches, games, and events run smoothly. He also did a brief coaching stint in 1986 for the wrestling team. He has always had the support of his wife Joanne and their three children, Bradley, Cody, and Grace, in his efforts to be at the school from morning to night helping with every type of sporting activity. His greatest joy is simply watching the kids compete and grow up before his eyes. He is proud that he has given two generations of Bulldogs support, advice, and friendship and that he has been repaid with visits and updates from so many of his former athletes as they continue with their lives beyond WCHS. He and Joanne are the proud grandparents of five grandchildren. Stu is incredibly grateful to the Churchill community for all the support he has received over the years.
