Class: 1972

Induction: 2013

Sport(s): Golf

Dave has been associated with Mark Morris High School in one capacity or another since the opening of the school in 1956. Dave's father Glenn Andrew was an assistant principal when Mark Morris' doors opened. Dave graduated from the high school in 1972. He participated in golf for Mark Morris and was a part of state tournament teams as both a junior and senior. During Dave's junior year, the Monarch golf team won the district championship. While in high school, Dave was an outstanding student and student leader. Throughout his high school career, Dave was a class officer and a member of the National Honor Society. At his graduation he was awarded the Longview Rotary Scholarship Award.

Dave graduated from Washington State University in 1976 and shortly after, returned to Longview. He has been a leader in the sports community ever since his return to town. Since the fall of 1976, Dave has been the voice of Monarch athletics, serving as our school's P.A. announcer for football, volleyball, boys' basketball and girls' basketball. Dave is a very talented announcer who has also announced at NWAACC and Pac 10 Conference events.

Dave has been involved in fastpitch for a number of years. Dave coached at Mark Morris in 1996 and 1997. He has umpired fastpitch since 1994 and has served as treasurer of the Lower Columbia Umpires Association since 2000.

Dave served as President of the Mark Morris Booster Club from 1999-2003. He has served on the Mark Morris foundation Board since its inception in 2009 and is an original and active member of the Mark Morris Hall of Fame Committee. In addition, Dave has served on the Longview World Series Committee and helped coordinate the NWAACC baseball championships for a number of years.
