In the Pacific Coast Conference, the football leagues, Pacific Hills (upper league) and Pacific Valley will re-league yearly. The 2 top teams from Pacific Hills will stay and the 3rd and 4th place finisher will be moved to the Pacific Valley League. The 1st place and 2nd place finisher from the Pacific Valley will move to the Pacific Hills League. If there are ties the two teams, from each league, who qualify for CIF, will be moved.
