A quick explanation of camp and staff: As a new coach at Desert Ridge, Coach Millanes is hoping to grow volleyball throughout our city and community. Teaching fundamentals that the young athletes can consistently use throughout their careers is paramount to their success, and Coach Millanes stays current with what college coaches and others are teaching to provide optimal learning environments. As a five-time city of Mesa Coach of the Year, and a two-time East Valley Tribune Coach of the Year, Coach Millanes tries to keep camps fun, yet highly competitive. Please join us this summer and improve your skills.

A quick explanation of P.I.D.: P.I.D. stands for Program Improvement Day. I told the girls when I took over as the new head coach at Desert Ridge High School that I wasn't just worried about the varsity, rather my job was to improve the whole program as quickly as possible. With that in mind we as a staff wanted to get all the girls who could be future Jaguars or are our current players to come to as many off-season workouts as possible. In the highly competitive world of girls volleyball, it pays to have our girls both future and present to be on the same page with technique and terminology. What we call things and how we teach things will be explained to all players who attend PID's. It gives the athletes a head start to playing for our three teams come next season.
