

EDGE OUT CANCER PINK OUT

Edgewood High School Volleyball team is hosting their annual PINK OUT Volleyball Match on October 3th at 5:30pm. This event is to promote Breast Cancer health education as well as raise funds to eradicate this disease.

The proceeds from donations will benefit IU Health Olcott Center of Bloomington.

Last year we were able to raise $8000! This year our goal is $10,000!

In an effort to make our event special, we invite your business to be a sponsor of the 2019 Edgewood Mustangs Volleyball, Edge Out Cancer Pink Out. You can become a sponsor by:

- Offering your services and/or products at the event free of charge or at a reduced rate for our silent auction
- Making a monetary contribution to The Olcott Center.
- $500 contribution receives a game ball signed by the EHS volleyball team, business logo on the Pink Out T-shirt, business name displayed on a banner outside of the high school as well as well advertised at the EHS football game that weekend.
- $250 contributions receive a business logo on the Pink Out T-shirt, business name displayed on the banner outside of the high school as well as well as advertised at the EHS football game that weekend.
- $100 contributions receive their names on the Pink Out T-shirt as well as announced at the EHS football game.

 All contributors will be recognized multiple times throughout the Varsity and JV matches as well as on the social media pages of the volleyball team and the school.

We appreciate the services/products you provide for our community.

Please contact myself, Beth May at (812) 325-7232 to support us as a sponsor in our upcoming event. We need your help to make this event successful! The players, coaches and school administrators sincerely thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Beth May
