

2015 ANNUAL PARISH MEETING

The Nominating Committee elected at the 2014 Annual Meeting will present its slate of nominees for election at the next Annual Meeting, to be held immediately following the 10:00 AM liturgy on January 25, 2015.

Matt Hart has been nominated for a two-year term as senior warden and Linnet Tse for a one-year term as junior warden (to finish the term vacated earlier this year). Additionally, four parishioners for the next vestry class have been nominated:

Liz Bruce, Jay Klancnik, Michael O'Connell and Sue Wahrhaftig.

Many thanks to the Nominating Committee, chaired by Jamie Vardell, and comprising Susan Matelich, Karen Gray, Lisa Young, Ryan O'Connell and Elizabeth Fitts.

Please plan to attend the Annual Meeting to welcome the Rev. Joe Greene on his first Sunday with us, cast your votes, and hear reports from various parish leaders. A light brunch will be served.

GUEST CLERGY IN JANUARY

As is customary between an interim minister's departure and the arrival of the new rector, guest clergy will join us for two Sundays in mid-January. On Jan. 11 we will welcome back the Rev. Timothy Morehouse, and on the 18th, the Rev. Jim Hagen. Both priests will preside at the 8:00 and 10:00 liturgies.

EPIPHANY SUNDAY AND FAREWELL RECEPTION

Alon's last Sunday presiding will be Jan. 4, when we will celebrate Epiphany with a baptism and some special music from parishioner Elizabeth Fitts! Plan to stay after the liturgy as we bid farewell to Alon at a reception and celebrate her ministry and time with us.

Thanks and peace to all,

—Cindy

"It was the best of times, it was the worst of times."

When Senior Warden Cindy Taleb and I were first speaking early on during my time as interim, I mentioned that there was no such thing as a "typical" interim period. Reflecting back on this past year, I can easily say it was full of many best of times and a few really worst of times. There have been times full of joy and sorrow as well as times of anxiety and flurries of activities. There have been baptisms, weddings, and, sadly, funerals. We've weathered two Lenten/Easter seasons, two Advent and Christmas seasons, two stewardship campaigns, two Christmas Bazaars (and preview parties), and the installation of a new computer/phone system. These things have all been possible with the hard work, participation and support that you have provided. I am so grateful for the gifts of the St. John's community. It has been a blessing to work with our devoted staff and volunteers. You all make life here work so well, and your cheerful spirit of willingness has been a true delight.

St. John's really is a special place. You have beautiful and well cared for property. You generously support outreach efforts throughout the year. You care for each other. You come together regularly for worship. It will be hard to say good-bye, but I look forward to hearing good things about your future. For the time we have been given, I am truly grateful.

The journey through the transition pilgrimage is almost done. Today, you stand at the edge of the desert looking over into the Promised Land. You are almost there. You are excited about and getting ready to welcome Fr. Joe and his family. But, it is important to remember that arriving does not mean done. It means that one pilgrimage is over and the next is ready to begin. Everyone's participation will be required for that journey.

May God's blessing upon your ministry and life with Fr. Joe bear much fruit!

Peace and Blessings,

Alon+

A WORD FROM OUR NEW RECTOR

The time after Christmas can seem almost anticlimactic. For weeks we have been preparing for the annual celebration of the birth of the Christ child, the Feast of the Nativity of our Lord. Christmas is a celebration of the Incarnation which we mark with lots of decorating and baking, parties and presents, family gatherings and obligatory card sending. And once the 26th hits, it's almost like all of the energy and action that's been leading up to Christmas day, consuming most of Advent and stretching out before Thanksgiving, goes away. As if it never happened, with the exception of a few lingering reminders: Toys that were obsessively begged for go unplayed with. Mounds of trash and empty boxes. Vague resentments over dinner conversations with ornery family members. Sadness over those that we did not see in our celebrations. Relief that the elves have returned to the North Pole, no longer occupying our shelves or creating havoc in our homes. A bit more darkness as the lights come down.

And what are we left with? A child, in a manger, who will grow into a man destined for death. We know the story doesn't end with his death (and I imagine the Easter candy will be appearing in stores soon). But maybe in the stillness and hollowness that occur after Christmas, we can come to understand that it is all about and always has been only about God. And this is bigger, in many ways, than just Christmas. This is what the Epiphany and the season after it point to—that the light illuminating our world and our lives is a light that shines with such radiance and such joy that it fills up the hollow bits and puts energy abounding into the stillness of winter. That light is the light of Jesus, born in human flesh yet fully God, a light of the revelation of God's love to all the nations.

St. John's is a place that radiates with that light. It has called me to you. My family and I look with great excitement as we join in with the light that beckons us to Larchmont. And this light, this brilliant, divine light, calls us all to look around and see where we can bring it—to neighbor and stranger who may still be dwelling in darkness or the shadow of death, who can use a little light right about now. Because the light is for us, and for us to give away.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Joe

Nicaragua Trip

Interested in joining our tenth yearly trip to Nicaragua with Bridges to Community (June 27–July 5)? The deadline is fast approaching! After Friday, Jan. 16, any available spots will be opened to non-parishioners.

Questions: Linnet Tse (linnet.tse@gmail.com or 833-2871) or Carla Berry (carla.c.berry@gmail.com or 235-5303).

BAZAAR THANK YOUS

Almost everyone in the parish contributed in some way to our very successful Bazaar that raised $21,000 for local charities and, in addition, collected $1,650 in the form of checks written at the Bazaar directly to the Hispanic Resource Center, Providence House and Family Services of Westchester. So we want say that whether you:

- Donated anything from cooking utensils to condos—we thank you!
- Created lovely centerpieces, wreaths or cookies—we thank you!
- Made the upstairs look lovely or made children happy downstairs - we thank you!
- Sorted “treasures” or toys, books or brooches—we thank you!
- Wrote letters to Santa or P.R. for the press—we thank you!
- Cooked chili or cleaned up—we thank you!
- Helped to throw out trash or throw a great preview party—we thank you!
- Sold, served or shopped—we thank you!
- Took pictures or picture how you could chair the Bazaar next year—we thank you!

But wait! There's more! Here's what else the Bazaar contributed:

- A great church spirit. Everyone laughed and enjoyed themselves as they turned mountains of contributed goods into beautiful, tempting displays.
- A great community event. Many shoppers commented that this was their first exposure to St. John's, and they were impressed by how very nice and welcoming we are.
- A great opportunity to glean. Many organizations from the Salvation Army to an after school program in Mount Vernon were happy to have our leftover goods.

Finally, we ask everyone to patronize - and personally thank - the following businesses that contributed generously to the Preview Party and Bazaar:

- Allegra Dance Studio, Greenwich
- Bach to Rock, Mamaroneck
- Blue Tulip Chocolates, Rye
- Coach Bags, corporate headquarters in NYC
- Decoration Day, Larchmont
- Equinox gym, Mamaroneck
- The Flower Bar, Larchmont
- House of Flowers, Mamaroneck
- Wine Gems, Bronxville, David Calkin, in coordination with Martin Scott Liquor and Purity Vodka

—Jackie Plumez and Karen Gray, 2014 Co-Chairs

Dear St. John's,

We are so very appreciative of all that the St. John's community has done for us in the last few months. It is truly terrible to lose one's son and brother, but the love and support from each of you has helped immensely. From the visiting hours and reception held in the Parish Hall, organized on just a few days' notice, to the amazingly well-executed memorial service, graciously accommodating one of the largest crowds seen at St John's in many years, we thank you from the bottoms of our hearts. It was great comfort to have had former curates Randy Alexander, Brad Dyche and Katie Herron-Piazza all join Alon White and Dorothy Greene, along with Kate's brother, the Rev. Paul Russell, to conduct the service. In addition to a wonderful team of Eucharistic ministers, Altar Guild members and ushers, it also was lovely to have former acolytes Drew Purcell, Eliza Berry and Eleanor Fanto back to serve once again. Will would have been overwhelmed, even embarrassed, by the incredible outpouring to celebrate his life. He taught us many lessons: true humble gratitude for what others do for us is one of them, so we wanted to write this letter to the parish.

We feel so blessed to be members of a community as strong, loving, capable and supportive as St. John's.

With deep gratitude to you all,

Kate, Steve and Eliza McCurdy

SUNDAY BABYSITTING

Free babysitting for children up to 3 years old is available every Sunday during the 10:00 AM liturgy. Two childcare providers are always present.

Check In and Check Out Procedures

Drop off: Parents sign in their child. We encourage parents to wait until the Eucharist or end of the service for pick up so as not to disrupt the other children.

Snacks: The parish's Sunday morning babysitting policy prevents us from offering snacks, but parents may bring a snack for their child. Please inform the sitters of any allergies.

St. John's is fortunate to offer a delightful space and caring childcare providers. The key guideline in ministry with children is to recognize that each of us is a child of God and is to be treated with respect, love, and support as we are commanded in the Gospels (John 13:34 and Mark 12:28-31).

INK CARTRIDGES

I have some Epson 273 ink cartridges that I can no longer use and would be happy to pass them along, free of charge, to anyone who can use them. Please contact me (203-324-0728 or bruce.baiter@gmail.com) if you are interested.

ST. JOHN'S TECHNOLOGY UPGRADE COMPLETE!

New E-mail Addresses, New Phones, Expanded WiFi, and More!

We are thrilled to announce that our technology upgrade was recently completed. Although much of the work will not be immediately visible to parishioners, the impact should soon be noticeable in terms of better phone service and internet connectivity. The parish now has Verizon FIOS service, all new wiring, a new phone system, new computers, better WiFi in the education wing and new internet (including WiFi) service in the Murray building!!

As part of our recently completed technology upgrade, the St. John's office and staff have new e-mail addresses. Effective immediately, these are the e-mail addresses you should use to get in touch with the office and staff. Please make a note of the new addresses, as we will soon be terminating our Cloud9 e-mail services:

TRANSITION PRAYER FOR ST. JOHN'S

Gracious and loving God, we thank you for calling the Rev. Joe Greene to be our rector. Be with him and his family, and with Alon, our wardens, vestry and congregation as we prepare for the next phase of transition. Grant us grace, humility and wisdom and strengthen our hearts to build on the foundation that has been laid so that we may continue to move closer to the vision of a world transformed by Jesus. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

If you would like to add your voice to the many who offer the names during the prayers of the people, please see Greg Hall, or contact the parish office. The more voices, the better.

COFFEE HOUR HOSTS NEEDED

We need hosts every Sunday to help create a warm welcome for those who attend the 10:00 AM liturgy. It is really easy to be a host: sign up and simply head to the Parish Hall immediately after the service to pour coffee and tea for parishioners. Everything is set up for you, though if you wish to make a nut-free finger-food treat, it can be added to the refreshments served. Stay for a few minutes at the end of the Coffee Hour and help with the easy clean-up. Volunteers are needed for the following Sundays: Nov. 2, 9, 16, 23 and 30. To sign up, or for more information, please contact Robin Ingram (636-4485 or rai811@aol.com).

MIDNIGHT RUN

Midnight Run volunteers bring food, clothing, toiletries, blankets and conversation to homeless persons on the streets of New York City. Our next run is scheduled for Friday evening, Jan. 9.

We need your help to gather the items that we will be giving out on our run. Please clean out your closets and put the following items listed below in the bins outside the parish office. Do not leave children's clothes, women's clothes, summer clothes, or recycled underwear/socks by the stairs. Only men's winter clothing is needed. Thank you.

Please donate the following clean clothing in bags by the stairway near the parish office:

- Jeans
- Warm coats and jackets
- Gloves and hats
- Sweatshirts and sweaters
- Blankets and sleeping bags
- Sneakers and outdoor shoes
- Warm boots

In addition, the following items can be donated:

- Toiletries: toothbrushes, toothpaste, small Irish Spring soap, small shampoos, deodorants, razors, combs, band-aids, small packs of wipes
- Men's suits and dress shirts—clean/pressed on coat hangers or boxed, please (for job interviews)

Help needed Friday, Jan. 9:

- Providing 24 bag lunches (four volunteers @ 6 lunches each)
- Packing toiletry bags (starting 6:00 PM, Friday, Jan. 9)
- Preparing hot soup: (starting 7:00 PM, Friday, Jan. 9)
- Sorting clothing: Everyone is invited to help sort and pack our donations in the undercroft (starting 6:00 PM, Friday, Jan. 9)
- Making the run to NYC: This is a good opportunity for parents and teens/pre-teens to do an activity together (starting 8:30 PM, Friday, Jan. 9 and returning from NYC approximately 2:00 AM on Saturday, Jan. 10)
- Clean-up in undercroft: a volunteer or two to help clean up on Saturday morning is greatly appreciated.

You may sign up during Coffee Hour or contact Paul Schwendener (pws77@verizon.net or 833-1762).
