

Upper Elementary Discussion Questions

Would You Rather:
only eat salty things for the rest of your life or only eat sweet things?

- What does greed mean?
- What does generosity mean?
- What things are easy for you to get greedy about? Why?
- Why do you think it's so natural for us to choose greediness over generosity?
- Why do you think God cares if we are greedy or not?
- Have you ever experienced someone being really generous towards you? How did it make you feel?
- What about someone being greedy with you? How did that make you feel?
- Who is someone in your life you maybe need to be more generous towards?

Digging Deeper: Read 1 John 2:15-17

- What is this verse saying?
- Why does God not want us to focus on the things of this world?
- If we chose to care more about God than the things we have, how do you think that would change our generosity?
- What does it show others about Jesus when we are generous?
- How could you choose to be generous this week?

Spend Time in Prayer: asking God to help you choose generosity even when it's hard. Ask Him to help you have a heart like His to see how you can give to others.

Memory Verse:

Trust in the Lord with all your heart, lean not on your own understanding in all your ways, acknowledge Him and He will make your path straight.
