MAP II. NANCESE-SHAI COMPANY

This plan of a company land shows the narrow strip farms — many of which had been replanted with cocoa by 1957. When the farmers found that the area they had bought was not rectangular the strips had to be remeasured and the arrows show that many farmers then had to cross their neighbour's strip to reach the continuation of their own farm. The whole area is about 600 acres.
MAP IV. THE IMENTI SUB-TRIBE OF THE MERU (KENYA)