

NO DEPRESSION RETURNING TO ROOTS WITH NEW PRINT PUBLICATION

*Kickstarter campaign to support
No Depression Magazine 2015 begins this week*

EMBARGOED UNTIL TUESDAY, MAY 12 at 9 a.m. EDT

May 11, 2015

We're all about celebrating roots at No Depression: since the magazine's founding in 1995, we've aimed the spotlight at both old and new roots music, bringing together voices of professional critics and regular listeners, as well as the artists themselves.

But, since 2008, those voices have lived solely online (nodepression.com). This year, which happens to be No Depression's 20th anniversary, we've decided to return to our own roots – and to print. We're excited to announce No Depression Magazine 2015, the first of an annual series of premium publications that will offer the best in articles, photos and artwork related to roots music – including Americana, bluegrass, folk and much more.

This year's edition, which will be released in September, will feature stories on Jason Isbell, the Punch Brothers, Shovels & Rope, Valerie June, I'm With Her, Dave Rawlings Machine, Greensky Bluegrass, Lee Bains III & the Glory Fires, and more, with cover artwork by Kevin Bradley at Church of Type.

What it will not feature is advertising.

So we're funding the magazine in part through a Kickstarter campaign available at <https://www.kickstarter.com/projects/nodepression/no-depression-magazine-2015>. Between May 12 and July 3, we hope to raise at least $40,000 to help us achieve our goal of publishing a premium magazine that readers will want to keep with their books, not next to the toilet. With funding and pre-orders from No Depression readers and fans, we can provide top-notch writing and artwork and print with sustainability in mind.

We've always celebrated quality handmade music, and we believe handmade music deserves a quality magazine you can hold in your hand.
