- VI. Building Board Reports
1. Principal of Oregon Trail Elementary School, Tyler Matlock shared a few highlights and a couple challenges for Oregon Trail Elementary School. His building report was included in the board packet. Mr. Matlock is especially proud of their Leader In Me Symposium where they had Author of The 7 Habits of Highly Effective Teens, Sean Covey present. Next year Oregon Trails plans to pilot dual emersion instruction in Spanish and English to increase literacy. After a few minutes of roundtable discussion with the Board, Mr. Matlock thanked the board for the opportunity to share information about his school.

2. Principal of Morningside Elementary School, Steve Hoy shared a few challenges and bright spots for Morningside Elementary School. His building report was included in the board packet. Mr. Hoy shared his schools wonderful growth indicators on the IRI this year and shared examples of how Morningside teachers are dedicated. After a few minutes of roundtable discussion with the Board, Mr. Hoy thanked the board for the opportunity to share information about his school.
3. Principal of Bickel Elementary School, Kelli Schroeder shared a few challenges and followed up with some bright spots for Bickel Elementary School. Mrs. Schroeder's building report was included in the board packet. Ms. Schroeder shared what her small PTA of three people have accomplished along with other bright spots happening at Bickel. One challenge at Bickel is that behavior of the students is becoming increasingly more severe. After a few minutes of roundtable discussion with the Board, Mrs. Schroeder thanked the board for the opportunity to share information about her school.
4. Principal of Lincoln Elementary School, Cheri McKenzie shared a few challenges and followed up with some bright spots for Lincoln Elementary School. Ms. McKenzie's building report was included in the board packet. Ms. McKenzie stated that her staff has done very well with the change in leadership. She shared a few challenges which includes having a long term guest teacher to cover for a teacher that left in November, and having a new 4th grade team. Behavior and high need students have increased at Lincoln as well. Ms. McKenzie thanked the other elementary principals for teaming up to support Lincoln each month. After a few minutes of roundtable discussion with the Board, Ms. McKenzie thanked the board for the opportunity to share information about her school.
