

THEATRE INTIME

SUBSCRIPTIONS 2017-2018

As the only student theatre on Princeton University's campus with a permanent space that is completely administered by students, Theatre Intime is committed to producing high quality work for the Princeton student community as well as the greater Princeton area. Intime has the unique opportunity to serve as a laboratory for students' continued development as theatre makers, promote collaboration throughout the production process, and operate as a student-driven host for the arts community on campus.

Our flexible subscription packages are a great way to save money while supporting the work that we do. You can either mail this form to us at Theatre Intime, #5557 Frist Campus Center Princeton University, Princeton, NJ 08544, or scan it and email it to us at boxoffice@theatreintime.org. On the first table, please write the number of each type of ticket (General Admission, Students, and Senior Citizens, Princeton Faculty, or Princeton Staff) you'd like for a show and circle the desired performance. If you would like to attend multiple performances of one show, circle all the desired dates and indicate how many tickets you would like for each performance below with your seating preference.

In addition to our mainstage shows which are part of the subscription package, I hope that you will consider joining us for our additional festival performances this season, including the 24-hour Play Festival on Saturday September 30th at 8:00pm and staged readings later in the season. Visit our website (<http://theatreintime.org/>) for more information and to purchase tickets to these shows.

Yours sincerely,
 Graham Cousins
 General Manager, gm@theatreintime.org
