

TERMS OF USE

The Glam App, LLC (“we”, “our” or “us”) operates the Glam App internet accessible website and related mobile application/website, including all information, documents, communications, files, text, graphics and software available therein (the “Platform”), that helps users (“Users”) discover, engage with and book on-demand and in-home or on-location beauty services provided and operated by service professionals such as stylists and beauticians (“Professionals”). All services offered through the Platform, whether to Users or Professionals, will be referred to as the “Services.”

This Terms of Use Agreement (“Agreement”) includes our policy for acceptable use of the Services and governs your rights, obligations and restrictions regarding your use of the Services. You are only authorized to use the Services if you agree to abide by all applicable laws and this Agreement. By using the Services, you agree to be bound by this Agreement.

Because your privacy is important to us, this Agreement also incorporates, by this reference, our Privacy Policy at http://theGlamApp.com/privacy_policy which explains how we collect and use your content and information. Please read the Privacy Policy.

In order to participate in certain Services, you may be notified that you are required to agree to additional terms and conditions and such additional terms are hereby incorporated into this Agreement by this reference but such additional terms and conditions shall control solely for the applicable Service.

We may modify this Agreement from time to time and such modification shall be effective upon posting on the Services. You will be deemed to have agreed to any such modifications by your further use of the Services after any such modification is posted. It is therefore important that you review this Agreement regularly to ensure you are updated as to any changes. If you do not agree with the modifications, please discontinue use of the Services immediately.

The Platform helps facilitate transactions between Users and Professionals. You acknowledge and agree that The Glam App, LLC is not a party to any such transaction or resulting agreement and makes no representations and bears no responsibility with respect to any such transaction, including any issues relating to pricing, payment, quality or completion and you waive any claims against The Glam App, LLC with respect thereto. In addition, you acknowledge and agree that The Glam App, LLC is not a broker, agent or insurer with respect to any transactions that may occur via the Platform. We do not offer any professional services or control the quality of any services offered by Professionals or the conduct of any User or Professional. All transactions entered into via the Platform are at your own risk.

YOUR ACCOUNT / SUSPENSION / TERMINATION

In order to access some features of the Services, you may be required to register an account (an “Account”). When creating or updating an Account, you are required to provide us with certain personal information, which may include your name, birth date, e-mail address, physical address and, in some cases, payment information, which will be held and used in accordance with our Privacy Policy at http://theGlamApp.com/privacy_policy. You shall notify us of any known or suspected unauthorized use(s) of your Account, or any known or suspected breach of security, including loss, theft, or unauthorized disclosure of your password.

Without limiting anything in this Agreement, we reserve the right, in our sole discretion, to restrict, suspend, or terminate your Account and/or your access to all or any part of the Services at any time, for any or no reason, with or without prior notice, and without liability, including in the event we stop offering any aspect of the Services. We expressly reserve the right to restrict, suspend and/or terminate your access to any part of the Services if we determine, in our sole discretion, that you have violated any of the terms of this Agreement.

RESPONSIBILITIES

Each User agrees to provide a safe and workable environment for the Professional to perform services. This includes providing a safe home or location for performance of services, a clean workspace with proximal access to hot and cold water and a reasonably usable sink for the type of service performed, access to electrical service outlets within reasonable proximity to the workspace or provision of usable and safe extension cords, and removal of pets and children under the age of 15 from the workspace and its surrounding proximal area (i.e., no less than 15 feet), as the Professional may have sharp objects, hot equipment, and chemicals which can harm a child.

You further agree that you will not seek to engage or otherwise hire a Professional you discovered through the Platform for future services unless you schedule and purchase such services through the Platform.

TRANSACTIONS

A. Rates & Tipping

Based on information provided during the application process, we categorize each of our Professionals as beginners, juniors or VIPs. We then set the hourly rates for each category of Professionals. These hourly rates are determined in our sole discretion and are subject to change without notice. In addition to those fees, we also charge additional fees such as booking fees as described in more detail below. Unless otherwise stated, such fees do not include taxes or duties of any kind, and all taxes and duties are the responsibility of the User or Professional, as applicable.

Cash tips are not permitted. Any tipping by Users to Professionals is to occur solely through the Platform. For the sake of clarity, any booking fees or other fees that we charge as a percentage of orders are not charged on tips (but third-party payment processing fees may be).

B. Fees

Users will be given the opportunity to book the services of a Professional through the Platform. The User will specify certain information about the booking such as the time and place, the kind of service the User would like to book (e.g., hair, makeup, nails, etc.), and the level of Professional (beginner, junior or VIP), and the Platform will send the request to applicable Professionals who will have the ability to accept the appointment on a first-come, first-served basis. In certain cases, Users may be able to request a specific Professional but if the Professional is unable to accept the appointment, the Platform will send the booking request to similarly-skilled Professionals and the User agrees to accept any booking that results.

In certain instances of high demand, we may institute surge pricing. You will always be notified of what this higher surge pricing is and will be given the opportunity to accept or decline the applicable booking after the surge pricing disclosure.

You acknowledge and agree that, in consideration of the administrative services provided by us in coordinating the services to be performed, we will charge you a booking fee equal to seven and a half percent (7.5%) of the total of (i) the fee charged for the Professional's services for a booked appointment and (ii) any surge pricing that may be charged. This fee will be charged in addition to the services fee and the surge pricing and is non-refundable for any booked services except as described in the Cancellations / Changes / Refunds section below.

A booking will not be considered complete or secured until you confirm the booking and "check-out" authorizing payment. Once you confirm the booking and authorize the charge, only the booking fee will be immediately charged to the credit card (even if your appointment is in the future). The remaining balance of the booking will be collected by us upon completion of the appointment. We reserve the right to cancel any booking if the payment information provided is incorrect, denied or delayed. When you provide credit card information to us, you represent that you are the authorized user of the credit card. All payments will be processed through a third-party payment processor.

Once you have confirmed a booking, the fees are set and you cannot decrease them, even if you desire different or more minimal services. Notwithstanding the foregoing, under certain circumstances, you will be able to increase the services (and thus the fees) you have booked, but that will be dependent on the Professional's availability and discretion.

C. Cancellations / Changes / Refunds

If you cancel more than 24 hours before your booked appointment and a Professional has not yet accepted the appointment, the booking fee will be refunded and all other scheduled fees (i.e., services fee and surge pricing, if any) will be cancelled or refunded, as applicable.

If you cancel more than 24 hours before your booked appointment and a Professional has already accepted the appointment, we will keep the booking fee, but the remainder of the scheduled fees will be cancelled or refunded, as applicable.

If you cancel less than 24 hours before your booked appointment, you will be charged in full; however, you will be given the opportunity to reschedule to a time that is no later than 24 hours after your originally-booked appointment. If you do not reschedule to such a time, or you attempt to reschedule but no Professional accepts your request, you will not be issued any refund and we will be entitled to keep the entire amount that was charged to you (including booking fees, the Professional's fees and surge pricing).

If you (a) change your scheduled appointment time by more than fifteen (15) minutes on less than twenty-four (24) hours' notice or (b) change the location of where the appointment is to occur by more than two and a half (2.5) miles on less than one (1) hours' notice, you will be charged a twenty-five percent (25%) surcharge of the price for the services scheduled. Without limiting the foregoing, these and any other changes you may request to an appointment are all subject to the applicable Professional's availability.

If a Professional cancels at any time, we will recirculate your booking request to other applicable Professionals to find a replacement. If (i) we cannot find such a replacement; or (ii) a booked Professional simply does not show up for the booked appointment; or (iii) a booked appointment is cancelled due to any error on the part of the Platform, the booking fee will be refunded and all other scheduled fees (i.e., services fee and surge pricing, if any) will be cancelled or refunded, as applicable.

We will not be a party to or in any way be responsible for monitoring any transaction between Users and Professionals.

As described in more detail in the Disclaimers and Limitation of Liability section below, any dispute between a User and a Professional relating in any way to the services provided by the Professional to the User shall be settled solely between the User and Professional.

Judgment upon the award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof. The arbitrator shall allocate all costs and expenses of the arbitration (including legal and accounting fees and expenses of the respective parties) to the parties in the proportions that reflect their relative success on the merits (including the successful assertion of any defenses).
