The Letter Writer – Paul’s Background & Torah Perspective

Tim Hegg

In The Letter Writer, Tim Hegg reveals a different Paul—one who maintained his Jewish identity and love of Torah; an Apostle of Yeshua the Messiah who not only lived an obedient Torah-life himself, but expected those he taught to do the same. In The Letter Writer, Paul is seen to be both the Apostle of grace and of Torah, because the Torah, when received in the context of faith in Yeshua, is God’s revelation of sanctifying grace. 310 pages with Indexes.

FellowHeirs – Jews & Gentiles Together in the Family of God

2nd Edition, updated & expanded – Tim Hegg

Are you being told that the Torah is only for Jewish people? Is this what the Torah itself teaches? What did Yeshua and His Apostles teach on this subject? In FellowHeirs Hegg will lead you through an investigation of the Scriptures that deal with the relationship of Jew and non-Jew within the body of Messiah. He shows that in Messiah, all have the same covenant privileges and responsibilities. They make a logical, Biblical and impassioned plea for all of us to take a new and honest look at the nature and unity of the Holy Scriptures, which are called by God, the Torah. 186 pages, ISBN-13: 978-0-97529114-0-5

A Week in the Life of the Lamb – Ariel Berkowitz

The Spirit of God opens Ya’akov’s eyes to the significance of the Passover Lamb, as He does and has done for countless others today. ### It is Often Said – Vol. 1 – Tim Hegg

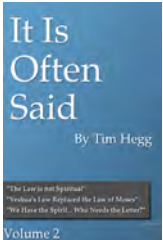

In this series Tim Hegg carefully examines numerous passages in the Apostolic Scriptures (New Testament) that are often either misquoted or misunderstood in mainstream Christianity. The results of Tim Hegg's research shows that the words of the Messiah, and those of the Apostles do not in any way support an anti-Torah theology, but rather underscore the belief that they upheld the validity of Torah at all times. ### A Commentary on the Johannine Epistles – 1, 2, 3 John

by Tim Hegg

A Commentary on the Johannine Epistles, by Tim Hegg, is the fruit of nearly one and a half years of studying and teaching through these three essential Apostolic Books. While most believers are familiar with 1John, the other two letters are often neglected, which is a shame, because these short books contain more encouraging words from the Apostle, with exhortations and instructions from which we can glean important biblical principles. In this 432 page softcover commentary on 1, 2, and 3 John, Hegg sets forth the meaning of the biblical text for the purpose of showing how the inspired words of John should be applied to our lives.

Rabbinic Literature: God's Authority or Man's Traditions?

Caleb Hegg

In this three part DVD series, Caleb Hegg looks at Matthew 23 (commonly used to support rabbinic authority), then turns to the rabbinic writings themselves. Hegg gives a brief history of the formation and theology of the Mishnah, the Talmuds and the Zohar, then looks at specific passages showing places where they openly contradict the clear teaching of the Scriptures. ## The Heavenly High Priesthood of Yeshua

Tim Hegg – 2 Teaching Sessions (DVD Video or Audio)

1. A More Excellent Name: The Superiority of Yeshua in Hebrews 1

The opening chapter of the Epistle to the Hebrews emphasizes the superiority of Yeshua above all created beings. As the author of the epistle describes the “more excellent Name” of the Messiah, he quotes from a number of Tanach texts, interpreting these as speaking directly of Yeshua. In this teaching, Hegg looks at these quotes and what they teach us about the very person of our Savior, Yeshua the Messiah.

2. The Heavenly High Priesthood of Yeshua

Most believers can explain why the death and resurrection of Yeshua are necessary for sinners to be made righteous. Fewer can explain why His ascension is important, and even fewer why Yeshua’s continual intercession is essential for our salvation. In this teaching, Hegg looks at a number of texts (Rom 8:34; Heb 7:25; 9:24) which speak directly to the heavenly intercessory work of our Messiah, Yeshua and then unfolds the seven requests of Yeshua as He prayed in the garden before His crucifixion (as recorded in John 17), taking these as indicative of His current intercession for us at the right hand of the Father. One of the great encouragements for every believer is to understand that Yeshua “always lives to make intercession for us” (Heb 7:25).

The Hebraic Perspectives of Yeshua & His Disciples

Two Video Teachings by Rob Vanhoff

Video #1 – Lifting Up The Son Of Man: What We Can Learn From Yeshua’s Conversation With Nicodemus The Pharisee

Centered on the third chapter of the Gospel of John, this presentation explores questions like: How are Yeshua’s teachings different from that of the ancient sages of Israel? Isn’t simple “faith in Adonai” enough? Why must I believe in Yeshua to worship the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob?

What difference does Yeshua make for me since I observe the ancestral traditions?

Video #2 – Visions of the End: Yeshua And The New Jerusalem Amidst Ancient Jewish Apocalyptic Speculation

Several different texts from ancient Judaic worlds offer their readers insight into the “secrets” of the heavenly realms, encouraging speculation about “things unseen.” As talmidim of Yeshua, King Messiah of Israel, we need discernment regarding this subject matter. This presentation aims to edify and equip believers through comparing and contrasting select ancient Jewish writings and highlighting the uniqueness of the heavenly visions recorded for us by the Sh’lichim (Apostles).

Through Romans with Tim Hegg

For two years Tim Hegg taught through the Book of Romans at Beit Hallel in Tacoma, comprising 99 teaching sessions. Each session included handouts which contain the substance of the Keynote slides Hegg used as he taught verse-by-verse through Paul’s magnum opus, his Epistle to the Romans.

Now the audio recordings of all 99 teaching sessions, handouts for each session, as well as the Keynote slides are available on a single data disc (DVD). The audio recordings are in mp3 format and the handouts as well as the Keynote slides for each session are in pdf format, making it easy to print out the teaching notes for personal or small group study. The notes contain the central teaching points for each session, providing a handy outline to follow along during the teaching.

This thorough, verse-by-verse exposition of Romans follows Hegg’s two volume commentary on Romans and therefore provides an excellent companion to the commentary as he explains the theological and doctrinal teaching of Paul and helps make it applicable to our daily walk of faith.

The Works of the Law in Paul & the Dead Sea Scrolls – Rob Vanhoff

“Works of the Law” is an important phrase found among Dead Sea Scrolls and in the writings of the Apostle Paul. Scholars are divided on how to interpret this important phrase. How is the word “works” used in Scripture? What do scholars have to say about the nature of these “works of the Law?” Are they commandments from Sinai, or something else? In this two hour presentation, Rob Vanhoff explores the critical term “works of the Law” from the perspective of ancient Jewish sectarianism and offers a pro One Torah interpretation that fits well with what we know about the history of the Second Temple era. Two DVD’s each approximately an hour long in length.

“Oral Torah” and the Messianic Believer – Tim Hegg

In these two lectures, Tim Hegg looks at the history and formation of some major rabbinical works throughout history, works such as the Mishnah and the Talmuds. Hegg challenges the common dating of these works looking at the earliest manuscripts and references we have to rabbinical literature. He then looks at some of the similarities between stories in the Gospels and stories in the “Oral Torah,” suggesting the rabbinical works are responding to Yeshua and His Apostles, instead of the other way around as is commonly suggested. These lectures were presented at the 2015 United Messianic Jewish Assembly annual meeting.

Originally presented at the 2014 Annual Conference hosted by Kehilat Beit HaMashiach in Edmonton, AB.

The Role of Women in the Messianic Assembly by Tim Hegg

The role of women in the Messianic Assembly has become a very important topic in our times—and rightly so. After all, this issue involves people. More than that, it involves the Kehilah (Congregation) which belongs to Messiah and therefore enters upon the question of His glory. Further, the Scriptures have much to say on the place of women in the Messianic Assembly. And, even if the contemporary scene did not place so much emphasis upon this issue, we should be obliged to study it for the sheer sake of knowing the mind of God as revealed in His Holy Word.

In a new, 45 minute video teaching, Tim Hegg looks at what the Bible has to say about women and the important and necessary role they have been given by God in the Body of Messiah as a whole, and in individual communities. Hegg also looks at the roles men and women have, showing that men and women are equal, yet have God given distinct roles within the Messianic and Torah Community.

The Great Commission - by Tim Hegg How Yeshua Defines Taking God's Light into the World

In this two lecture series, Tim Hegg begins by looking at the person and nature of Yeshua. Hegg then turns to Matthew 28 and explores what is meant by “all that I have commanded you.” This two part study focuses on what we as followers of Yeshua should take from this passage of Scripture. In the second part of this lecture series, Hegg looks at what it means to “make disciples.” Hegg begins by focuses on discipleship in the home and within the family unit. Next the focus shifts to personal communities and/or small groups. Hegg shows that making disciples begins by sharing the light of Messiah to those who are closest to us.

The Book of Immanuel – Ariel Berkowitz

Berkowitz’s focus of interest has been on the book of Isaiah and his expertise shines through in this series. ## Have We Left the Church?

by Caleb Hegg

In this single lecture Caleb Hegg looks at the current Torah movement and asks if this movement is separate from the evangelical Church, or if it is simply an extension. Many within the Messianic and Hebrew Roots movement want to disassociate from the modern Christian Church, but what does this mean? Hegg addresses six questions that are often presented by some in the Torah movement. 1) What is the “Church?” 2) Are Christians saved? 3) If Christians are saved, shouldn’t the fruit of their faith be keeping Torah? 4) If God has sustained the Church for this long, doesn’t that mean the Torah doesn’t matter? 5) If my friends are saved, why should I be different and keep the Torah? 6) Have we as Torah keepers left the Church? This insightful teaching emphasizes our personal relationship with God and how all true believers relate to Him.

Having a Biblical Worldview – Tim Hegg

In this series, Tim Hegg begins by looking at what it means to have a biblical world view. Tim looks at the change that takes place within a believer, and the ability to conform to what the Lord says in the Bible as opposed to our own desires and goals. Tim then discusses apologetics, and the ability to defend our faith. This includes our basic starting points as believers. In the next sessions, Tim looks at how we approach the Scriptures and how we interpret them. Tim suggests the way we interpret the Scripture is vital to our own evangelism and the way we relate to the Word and ultimately to God. Finally, a brief look at some forms of interpretation that have missed the mark, like Covenant Theology and Dispensationalism. Taking the historical grammatical interpretive method already discussed, Tim looks at some of these theologies to see if they stand up to a good hermeneutic.

Understanding Biblical Poetry Studies in the Psalms

Tim Hegg

In this teaching Tim Hegg begins by looking at the Psalms as a whole and how to view and understand biblical poetry. Tim then turns his attention to Psalm 1, going verse by verse through this opening Psalm, showing how biblical poetry works in context. In the second session, Tim uses Psalm 36 to show how the poetry enhances this inspired text, teaching us how we take refuge in God. This teaching is a wonderful journey showing the poetic beauty of the Psalms.

TorahResource

Biblically Based • Honoring Yeshua • Upholding Torah

Biblically based

We accept the Scriptures, both the Tanach and the Apostolic Scriptures, as the sole basis for faith and halachah (practice). It is our purpose, then, to see that the materials we produce are in harmony with what the Bible teaches.

Leadership training

We provide academic training in biblical and related studies through TorahResource Institute. Classes are offered at the graduate and post-graduate level

Some of our Fundamental Principles

We take all the Scriptures (the 66 books of the Tanach & Apostolic Scriptures) to be the inspired word of God and therefore the final authority in all matters of faith and halachah.

We affirm without reservation that Yeshua is God, for He is Immanuel, “God with us,” and that He is one with the Father, without beginning or end, the promised Messiah. He is thus worthy of our worship as the eternal, uncreated Son of God.

We consider the Torah to be the gift of God to all His children (Jew and non-Jew alike), being God’s eternal and unchanging revelation and instructions in righteousness.

We labor in producing materials and teaching classes (through TorahResource Institute) in order to help Torah Communities become established and well-founded in following the footsteps of Yeshua our Messiah.
