Contemporary, biblically sound books from Eerdmans...

YESTERDAY, TODAY, AND TOMORROW
Simon J. DeVries
The first systematic and comprehensive study of the Hebrew word for "day" (yom) as it occurs throughout the Old Testament, resulting in a definitive study of the biblical view of time and history.
380 pages, Cloth $10.95

WORD IN DEED
Gabriel Fackre
Now that the church of the 70's has shifted its emphasis from social concern to personal religious experience, it is suffering a loss of morale. Arguing against this self-centered brand of Christianity, Fackre suggests a return to "Acts evangelism" and presents helpful guidelines for an integrated proclamation of the whole gospel.
112 pages, Paper $1.95

PICKING UP THE PIECES:
A Christian Stance in a Godless Age
W. Fred Graham
This critique of the pervasive secularity in modern theology and religious institutions introduces "a theology for the times" to help Christians understand themselves as a minority in a secular world.
232 pages, Paper $3.95

CURRENT ISSUES IN BIBLICAL AND PATRISTIC INTERPRETATION
Gerald F. Hawthorne, editor
A wide range of historical, biblical, patristic, and theological topics are combined in this invaluable collection honoring Merrill C. Tenney, Professor Emeritus of New Testament at Wheaton College.
384 pages, Cloth $11.95

MORE THAN MAN: A Study in Christology
Russell F. Aldwinckle
A timely discussion of the divinity and humanity of Jesus, including a careful study of the New Testament evidence, Christology, God and Divinity, the "who" and the "what" of the Incarnation, Jesus, and God, and a powerful argument for the importance of continued search for an understanding of Christ's divinity.
304 pages, Cloth $11.95

THE MISSIONARY NATURE OF THE CHURCH
Johannes Blauw
—R.J. Hammer Thelen
192 pages, Paper $6.95

RECONCILIATION AND HOPE:
New Testament Essays in Atonement and Eschatology
Robert Banks, editor
An international team of evangelical scholars, including F.F. Bruce, Herman Ridderbos, Günther Bornkamm, D.W.B. Robinson, George Eldon Ladd, and others, present these essays in honor of the 60th birthday of New Testament scholar Leon Morris. 320 pages, Cloth $16.95

HOLY SCRIPTURE:
G.C. Berkouwer
From Berkouwer's well-known series, "Studies in Dogmatics," this volume covers the relationship of Scripture and certainty, the authority of the Bible, the relationship of Holy Spirit to the Word, interpretation, inspiration, translation and proclamation.
384 pages, Cloth $11.95
