New Theological Titles from Fortress

THEOEPOETIC
Theology and the Religious Imagination
AMOS NIVEN WILDER. One of America's most distinguished scholars and critics here attempts to relate the Christian faith to the changes in modern man's sense of reality, and to the powerful new forms of spirituality which reflect these changes. $4.95 cloth

THE GOSPEL AND THE CHURCH
ALFRED LOISY. The inclusion of Loisy's The Gospel and the Church in the Lives of Jesus series serves to remind Catholics of their own inherited past and offers a view of the Protestant past from the point of view of an outsider. For the Protestant reader in particular, it offers an alternative view to Protestant understanding of the relationship of Jesus to the Church. $6.95 paper

HOPE AGAINST HOPE
Moltmann to Merton in One Theological Decade
WALTER HOLDEN CAPP. This current analysis of contemporary trends in religion and theology, covers problems defined by Karl Barth and Paul Tillich to alternatives posed by Jürgen Moltmann and Thomas Merton. Intended as an extended commentary on the career of the theology of hope, Walter Capp speaks to theologians, pastors, teachers, and lay persons who have been raising their own questions about the possibility of "hope against hope" in our day. $4.75 paper

THE SON OF GOD
MARTIN HENGEL. Professor Hengel examines the titles "Son" and "God" to point towards the inner consistency and dynamic in the development proceeded from the Gospels' account of the death of Jesus to the high Christology present in the Pauline writings. $3.75 paper

NEW BIRTH OF FREEDOM
A Theology of Bondage and Liberation
PETER C. HODGSON. Here is an exercise in systematic theology with freedom as its central theme. The book provides theological resources for interpreting the central dilemma of the American experience—the contradiction between the ideals of freedom and equality espoused by the Declaration of Independence and the realities of racial, class, sexual, as well as economic, political, and technological domination. $7.95 paper, $14.95 cloth
