THE BODY OF FAITH
Judiasm as Corporate Election
by Michael Wyschogrod
The first work in over 50 years to develop a comprehensive understanding of traditional Judaism in conversation with contemporary philosophy and Christian thought. THE BODY OF FAITH marks an original and important contribution to the efforts of both Christians and Jews to understand the theological centrality of God's historical and living covenant with the people of Israel. HOLY WAR AND PENTECOSTAL PEACE
by Paul Valliere
An exploration of the theological implications of the Pentecost event for the vital issues of war and peace. Valliere asks what Pentecostal peace means for politics and society and how it clarifies the mission of the Church to nations and empires. Relying on Biblical insight, he challenges the attraction which some American Pentecostalists feel toward the fortress mentality and militarism of the New Right.
