

City of Houston Evacuation Hub Exercise

The City of Houston is hosting a one day hurricane exercise to practice pre-landfall evacuation activities. To have the most realistic environment testing our evacuation procedures, we need volunteers to role-play and bring varied life circumstances, language diversity, and real-life access or functional needs to our exercise.

When: Wednesday, June 5, 2019
7:00-11:00 am (approx. end time)

Location: George R. Brown Convention Center, Hall E
1001 Avenida De Las Americas, Houston, TX 77010

Things to know:

- Participation is open to everyone, including retirees, coworkers, colleagues, friends, relatives, and children. Family members of all ages are welcome as long as children are accompanied by an adult.
- Pets can be simulated by bringing a stuffed animal.
- The registration deadline is May 31, 2019
- Snacks will be available, but if you have a special diet, please bring your own snacks. Unfortunately, lunch will not be provided.
