Part III. Measurement of Outcomes

Please use the box below to include the most relevant qualitative and/or quantitative indicators to measure the outcome of the activities described in Part II above.

Millennium@EDU SUSTAINABLE EDUCATION is strongly committed to collaborate with different countries and regions through Sustainable@EDU INITIATIVES, Sustainable@EDU PROJECTS and Sustainable@EDU SOLUTIONS aiming to develop and promote the use of Information, Communication and Scientific Technologies (ICSTs), under a comprehensive approach, the Sustainable@EDU PROGRAM, as a Framework to develop SUSTAINABLE EDUCATION, on which we have already developed Agreements with different Partners.

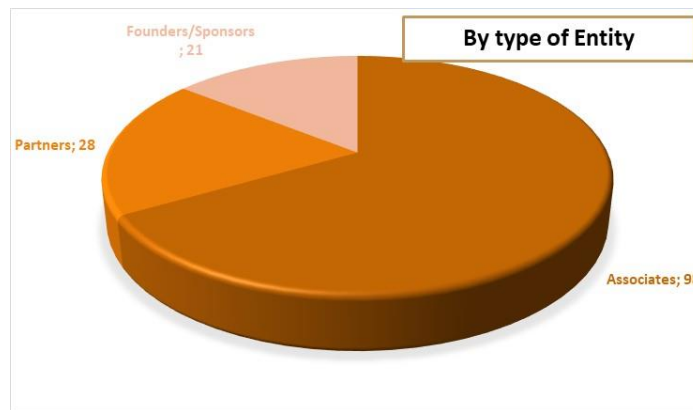

We take the opportunity to underline that Millennium@EDU SUSTAINABLE EDUCATION is aligned with the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), which aim to contribute to the development of 21st Century Skills and Literacies.

As a Key-Partner of UNESCO GAP ESD Network, Millennium@EDU SUSTAINABLE EDUCATION specifically belonged to Partner Network 2 (PN2) - TRANSFORMING LEARNING AND TRAINING ENVIRONMENTS and in this context, developed partnerships on education and Sustainable Development. As such, Millennium@EDU SUSTAINABLE EDUCATION and the United Nations Global Compact Network Portugal are developing a project "Education for Sustainable Development" – implementation of the UNESCO reference framework for sustainability in education that prepares teachers to contribute directly to the achievement of the Sustainable Development Goals established in Agenda 2030, through the creation of an in e-learning training course.

Millennium@EDU SUSTAINABLE EDUCATION has been a member of the United Nations Global Compact since 2014 and since then has promoted and raised awareness amongst its stakeholders on the principles and related issues through specific actions such as:

- The action of the Foundation is in accordance with the Ten Principles of the United Nations Global Compact, which apply internally and in the pursuit and operationalization of our mission.
  - Partnerships@EDU - The Foundation promotes and disseminates the principles of the United Nations Global Compact within the establishment and development of specific Partnerships with its Stakeholders. Millennium@EDU SUSTAINABLE EDUCATION also establishes Partnerships with companies and institutions that incorporate the United Nations Global Compact principles, such as Microsoft, Intel, Ericsson, ECS, and jp-Inspiring Knowledge.

By the end of 2019, the Ecosystem of Millennium@EDU SUSTAINABLE EDUCATION was comprised by 21 Founders/Sponsors, 28 Partners and 98 Associates. - Sustainable@EDU PROJECTS – All projects and Initiatives of Millennium@EDU SUSTAINABLE EDUCATION are established and developed in alignment with the principles of the United Nations Global Compact.

Millennium@EDU SUSTAINABLE EDUCATION develops or supports existing projects around the world with the aim of increasing the quality and access to Education. By the end of 2019, the projects were distributed regionally as follows – Asia (5); Europe (4); Africa (14); Americas (10) and the Middle East (4) – and impacted 347938 people.

- Communication@EDU – In order to promote its activity, the Foundation participates in several events and seminars and has created online communication tools for both internal and external audiences.

As such, Millennium@EDU SUSTAINABLE EDUCATION periodically identifies the most relevant events and seminars in Education and Sustainable Development, and shares this information with its partners and associates in order to build a stronger presence. In 2019, the Foundation participated in 6 Worldwide events in which its presence was mainly translated by presentations.

The table below provides approximate numbers regarding the impact of the presence of the Foundation presence in the events of 2019. The presence of the Foundation in these events allows for the establishment of contacts with several current and potential partners, in the same place and for a short period of time, which results in huge savings of resources and in the consolidation of partnerships, the main objective and the Program of the Foundation.
