

Center For International Sustainable Development Law
Prof Marie-Claire Cordonier Segger, DPhil (Oxon) MEM (Yale) BCL/LLB (McGill)
Executive Secretary, Climate Law & Governance Initiative
Senior Director, Centre for International Sustainable Development Law (CISDL)
5 Cranmer Road, Cambridge, United Kingdom, CB3 9LB

27 May 2017

H.E. António Guterres Secretary-General United Nations
New York, NY 10017 USA

Dear Mr. Secretary General,

I am pleased to confirm that the Centre for International Sustainable Development Law supports the ten principles of the UN Global Compact with respect to human rights, labor, environment and anti-corruption. With this commitment, we express our intent to support the Global Compact advancing these principles, and will make a clear statement of this commitment to our stakeholders and the general public.

We also pledge to participate in and engage with the UN Global Compact in the following ways:

- Conduct applied research and thought leadership to advance best practices. CISDL's work is focused on research, leadership, and capacity building in legal and institutional responses to sustainable development challenges. This work is led by our expert team of associate research fellows and partnerships with universities including McGill University, University of Cambridge, University of Waterloo, and University of Nairobi.
- Promote the UN Global Compact and educate a variety of audiences about sustainability. CISDL regularly hosts conferences to bring together academics, practitioners, decision makers, and civil society to share knowledge and co-create capacity building initiatives to promote sustainable development.

We recognise that a key requirement for participation in the Global Compact is the submission of a Communication on Engagement (COE) that describes our organization's efforts to support the implementation of the ten principles and to engage with the Global Compact. We support public accountability and transparency, and therefore commit to report on progress within two years of joining the Global Compact and every two years thereafter according to the Global Compact COE policy.

Very kindest regards,

Marie-Claire Cordonier Segger, DPhil (Oxon) MEM (Yale) BCL/LLB (McGill) BA Hons.
Executive Secretary, Climate Law & Governance Initiative (CLGI)
Senior Director, Centre for International Sustainable Development Law (CISDL)
Fellow, CEENRG & LCIL, University of Cambridge