30 July 2020

H.E. António Guterres
Secretary-General
United Nations
New York, NY 10017
USA

Dear Mr. Secretary-General,

I am pleased to confirm that LTD Business and Technology University supports the Ten Principles of the United Nations Global Compact on human rights, labour, environment and anti-corruption. With this communication, we express our intent to implement those principles. We are committed to making the UN Global Compact and its principles part of the strategy, culture and day-to-day operations of our company, and to engaging in collaborative projects, which advance the broader development goals of the United Nations, particularly the Sustainable Development Goals. Business and Technology University will make a clear statement of this commitment to our stakeholders and the general public.

Established in 2016, Business and Technology University leads Georgian educational sector with top-notch programs, laboratories and international as well as local partners. University mission is to offer the public a unique experience in the fields of business and information technology to meet its expectations of modern higher education develop leadership and entrepreneurial skills, create an entrepreneurial ecosystem, and a high tech business. To give the motivation and opportunity to be competitive and able to work not only on a local level but also in the foreign markets. By sharing the results of scientific research, innovations and ideas, to demonstrate our potential in global markets, focus on the creation and dissemination of modern knowledge, international integration and assisting the development of Georgian social-economic situation.

Some of the CSR projects:

- Coding School for Women (two rounds)
- Trainings for those in need
- Business plan development for startupers
We recognize that a key requirement for participation in the UN Global Compact is the annual submission of a Communication on Progress (COP) that describes our company's efforts to implement the Ten Principles. We support public accountability and transparency, and therefore commit to report on progress within one year of joining the UN Global Compact, and annually thereafter according to the UN Global Compact COP policy. This includes:

- A statement signed by the chief executive expressing continued support for the UN Global Compact and renewing our ongoing commitment to the initiative and its principles. This is separate from our initial letter of commitment to join the UN Global Compact.
- A description of practical actions (i.e., disclosure of any relevant policies, procedures, activities) that the company has taken (or plans to undertake) to implement the UN Global Compact principles in each of the four issue areas (human rights, labour, environment, anti-corruption).
- A measurement of outcomes (i.e., the degree to which targets/performance indicators were met, or other qualitative or quantitative measurements of results).

Sincerely yours,
Ms. Nino Enukidze
Rector