

MULTNOMAH
UNIVERSITY

Articulation Agreement between

Portland Bible College and Multnomah University

Multnomah University (MU) and Portland Bible College (PBC) agree that students, who choose to enter Multnomah University should be provided with a smooth curriculum transition that minimizes loss of credit and duplication of coursework. Therefore, Multnomah University and Portland Bible College agree to enter into this curriculum articulation agreement.

It is to be understood that credits earned at Portland Bible College will be accepted by Multnomah University as they are deemed appropriate to the various program and general education requirements. Transfer students must complete a minimum of 32 semester credits (one full year of resident study) in residence at Multnomah University and must complete a minimum of 15 semester hours in their major at Multnomah as a requirement for the B.A. degree awarded by Multnomah University.

Both institutions enter into this agreement as cooperating, equal partners who shall maintain the integrity of their separate programs.

This agreement became effective May 1, 2015. The agreement is being renewed for another five year term and will be in effect until May 1, 2025. The agreement will be reviewed and may be renewed at that time. The agreement may be voided by mutual consent or by either party with 3 months notice.

We the representatives of Portland Bible College and Multnomah University agree to the terms of this agreement.
