Up with People Rights and Reproduction Policy

- All researchers wishing to reproduce Up with People (UWP) images, audio or visual recordings for use in electronic or broadcast media, books, magazine, or for any other purpose must apply for written permission. A form is provided for this purpose although an email or letter containing the necessary information may be accepted. This process ensures that three elements are considered: copyright, citation and credit, and reproduction use fees.

- Permission is granted for one-time, non-exclusive, world-wide use in one language of an image or images. Re-use of the image or images in a different publication or format will require a new application for permission.

- The image or images shall not be used to show or imply UWP endorsement of any commercial product or enterprise, or to indicate that UWP concurs with opinions expressed in, or confirms the accuracy of any text used with the images.

- Copies of images, audio or visual recordings may not be deposited in another library, archive, repository or online without the written permission of Up with People.

- Credit shall be provided to both UWP and to the University of Arizona Special Collections. The citation to be used is as follows:

  Up with People Archive (MS 491), courtesy of University of Arizona Libraries, Special Collections
  ©Up with People

- When collection items are reproduced online, a link back to the Special Collections is requested: http://speccoll.library.arizona.edu/collections/people-archive

- Fees for duplication of images, audio and visual recordings are charged according to the fee schedule set out by Special Collections, University of Arizona Libraries. Fees for copyright permission are at the discretion of the copyright holder, Up with People.
