Bartholomew J. Dubs

Official Live Mascot

Mr. Dubs is the current Official Mascot for the University of Washington. He is an Alaskan Malamute born in November of 2008 in Burlington, Washington. He is the 13th live mascot for the UW Huskies. He has a team of UW students who handle him at all of his official events. He lives in a home in Seattle with an alumni family.

You can follow him on Facebook and his weekly blog to watch him grow up and see what he is learning. You can also help support the care and training for Dubs by donating to the Dollar for Dubs Program. To learn about former UW live mascots please check out gohuskies.com. Dubs loves being a Dawg!
