

YOUTH AT UW 2017 SNAPSHOT

94,000

youth engage with UW each year

200+

programs and activities representing virtually every college and department

ENGAGING WITH YOUTH THROUGH

- College access
- Early college entrance
- Early learning
- Educational enrichment
- Outreach and recruitment
- Research
- Sports
- STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math)
- Summer camps

CONTACT US AND LEARN MORE

UW OFFICE FOR YOUTH PROGRAMS
DEVELOPMENT AND SUPPORT
Box 352800
Seattle, WA 98195

206-616-5706

uwminors@uw.edu

www.uw.edu/youth

LISTSERVS
youthatuw@uw.edu
uwsummerprograms@uw.edu

REPORT CHILD ABUSE OR NEGLECT

DO YOU SUSPECT ABUSE OR NEGLECT OF A YOUTH?

Call the local police
(911 or a non-emergency line)
or Child Protective Services
(1-866-END-HARM / 1-866-363-4276)

THE OFFICE FOR YOUTH PROGRAMS DEVELOPMENT AND SUPPORT

"THANKS FOR THIS IMPORTANT WORK AND COORDINATION! SINCE WE STARTED [OUR PROGRAM] IN 2009 WE REALLY DIDN'T KNOW HOW ELSE TO ACCESS OR CONSULT WITH OTHERS ON CAMPUS ABOUT DO'S AND DON'TS AND COMPLIANCE/RISK MANAGEMENT REQUIREMENTS AND BEST PRACTICES."

- UW YOUTH PROGRAM DIRECTOR

UNIVERSITY of WASHINGTON

OUR OFFICE IS A CENTRALIZED RESOURCE FOR THOSE AT UW WHO ENGAGE WITH YOUTH UNDER THE AGE OF 18.

PROVIDING CONSULTATION, EDUCATION AND TRAINING

SAFEGUARDING YOUTH THROUGH POLICY AND PRACTICE

PROMOTING SAFE INTERACTIONS BETWEEN YOUTH AND ADULTS

ESTABLISHING BEST PRACTICES THROUGH

POLICY DEVELOPMENT

Supporting development of relevant, effective safety policies

IMPLEMENTATION SUPPORT

Assisting staff and faculty in compliance with University policies

EDUCATIONAL RESOURCES

Education

Online trainings, model policies and professional development events

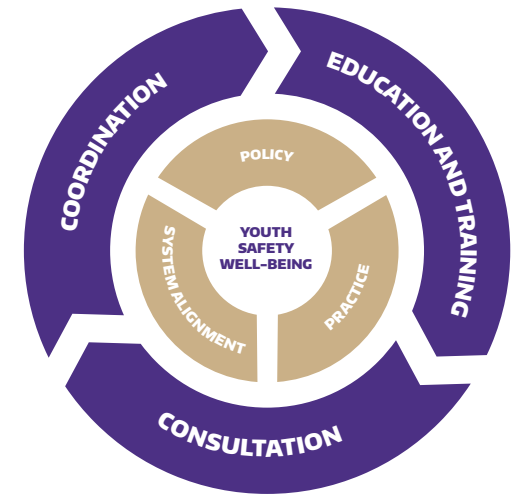

Consultation

On topics including: risk mitigation, program planning, policy compliance, staff supervision, emergency preparedness, best practice models, continuous quality improvement, and more

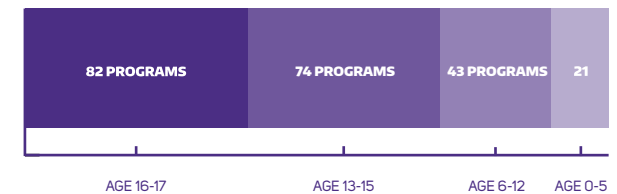

Networking and collaboration

Convening youth programs to coordinate services, share best practices, and for joint professional development, leveraging local and national best practice resources

THE YPDS APPROACH

AGE OF THOSE SERVED IN UW YOUTH PROGRAMS

"I WANT TO THANK YOU AGAIN FOR YOUR SUPPORT AND FEEDBACK. SOMETIMES JUST HAVING SOMEONE TO SHARE WITH IS THE MOST IMPORTANT THING."

- YOUTH PROGRAM DIRECTOR